History.

Elementary School-Books.

BRADSHAW, Henry On the A B C as an Authorized Sch.-bk. in 16 cent.—in his Coll. Papers, ut ℬ.ℬ. K § 3.
This was a first bk. for children, contg. not only the alphabet but also the elements of relig. instr. BRADSHAW draws attention to edns. of it fr. 1538–1588, and shows that something v. like it existed down to 1850 in the Estab. Ch. of Scotl. An interesting contrib. to the hist. of mediæval schl.-bks.
FIELD, Mrs. E. M. —in her The Child and his Book: hist. and progr. of chldn.'s liter. in Engl. 6/– c 8° Wells Gardner [91] 92
Tho' this study is purely literary and fr. the outside, it is full of interest to the student of the hist. of Engl. educ. Commencing w. the earliest times (the Druids!) and passing thro' the Mid. Ages to the Puritan times, when children all became "miserable little sinners," it ends at 1826; since wh. time the author wisely refrains fr. mentioning more than a few names. Her bk. forms excellent mémoires pour servir, and is very interesting.

The Amer. portion of his wk. was tr. into Engl. by Rev. Reinhold FORSTER in the 18 cent.; but the Engl. portion is now first tr. It is even of greater interest, probably transcending in completeness and accuracy any similar production of its age. His wk. in Engl. was carried on fr. 4 centres: Gravesend, London, Woodford and Little Gaddesden (Herts.); and is of great value for the rural economy of the country—a treasure newly discov. for English readers.

An excellent example of modern topogr. research, partly based on matls. left by late Jno. HODGSON. This vol. deals w. Bamburghshire; vol. ii. will comprize the Regality of Hexham and the Parishes of Chollerton and Thockrington. The whole will occupy 12 vols., £15 12*s.* to subscrs. or 25*s.* a vol. separ. 1,000 printed. Profusely ill. by old drawings, plans of pre-hist. camps, photogravs. and a unique ser. of anc. memorial maps (fr. origs. in Alnwick Castle). If completed as begun, the whole will form by far the most import. County History pub. for many a long year.

Early Accounts and Travel.

POCOCKE, Archd. [1704–65] Tour in Ireland in 1752, ed. Dr. Geo. T. Stokes, w. intro. and notes 5/- c 8° Hodges, Dublin 91
Pococke, Archd. of Dublin, afterw. Bishop successively of Ossory and of Meath, was one of the boldest and most indefatigable travellers of the 18 cent. He had previously explored Syria, Asia Min. and Egypt, and "discovered" Switzerland for Englishmen. His Irish journey, made on horseback, extended round the whole seaboard, and his acc. of it has a good deal of interest on the geol., industries, architecture and antiquities, and scenery of the places he visited. Unlike Arthur YOUNG [ut infra] he rarely noted the social or moral cond. of the people, and has nothing to say on politics.

*YOUNG, Arthur Tour in Ireland [in 1776–9], ed. A. W. Hutton, 2 v. [Bohn's Lib.] c 8° ea. 3/6 Bell / ea. $1 Macmillan, N.Y. [1780] 92
Apart from a repr. in PINKERTON'S Coll. of Voyages, 17 vols. 4° 1808–14, this is the first complete reprint of the 1780 edn., incl. also all the author's subseq. wrgs. on Ireld. With a bibl. of Arthur Young by Jno. P. ANDERSON, an Index and map ill. Young's route. A most interesting and import. wk., unsurpassed in the fulness and vividness of its descr. of the state of Irel. in 1776–79.

Yemen.

HARRIS, W. B. A Journey through Yemen; ill. 16/- 8° Blackwood 93
Yemen ("Arabia Felix") was in 1872 annexed by Turkey, at the request of the merchants of the capital, Sanaa. A serious revolt of the agricultural tribes, overweighted w. taxation and retaxation in the usual manner of the Porte, occurred early in 1892, but it was speedily suppressed, tho' a few people of the least accessible parts of the Yemen are still unsubdued. Mr. HARRIS was in Yemen dur. the suppression of the rebellion, and well describes it—as also the physical features of the country (the counterpart of Abyssinia), the character of the people, etc.

*MILNER, Alf. England in Egypt 8° 16/- Arnold / $5 Macmillan, N.Y. [92] 93

An excellent study of the subject, showing by close and irrefragable argument why English influence (under wh. the country has been raised fr. bankruptcy to wealth, a syst. of education has been estab. imperfect only thro' the opposition of Frce. and Russia, and by irrigation wks. the producing power of the land in the Delta has been nearly doubled) should still be allowed to remain paramount in Egypt. The subj. is raised altogether above the level of party politics, and the literary qualities are considerable. Cheap English edn., 7/6 c 8° 1894.

ORPEN, [Mrs.] Adela E. The Chronicles of the Sid: life and travels of Adelia Gates; ill. 7/6 c 8° R.T.S. 93

A personal acc. of events in the Sudan since the rise of Mahdiism, throwing a good deal of light on the Mahdi's unprincipled and despotic successor.

RUSSELL, Hy. The Ruin of the Soudan: cause, effect and remedy; maps and collotypes 8° 21/- Low / $4.50 Scribner, N.Y. 92

Author was resid. on Red Sea for 12 yrs. and stationed at Suakin fr. Feb. '84 to Apl. '87, dur. wh. time he acted as corresp. to Dy. News and Dy. Telegr. Historical more than geograph., abounding in quotns. fr. Blue-Bks. and other offic. docums. He traces the loss of these provinces to the "corrupt and iniquitous practices" of the Egyptn. govt. officials, wh. alone account for the success of the revolt headed by the Mahdi.

WINGATE, Maj. F. R. Mahdiism & the Egyptian Sudan [sic]; plans and 10 good col. maps 30/- ($10) 8° Macmillan 91

A history of events in the Soudan during the years 1882–91 w. the fullest possible details as to the fall of Khartoum, based largely on information obtained fr. the lips of Mahdist prisoners, Mahd. docum., etc. Author is head of Intelligence Dept. of Egyptian army, and attempts to justify the policy of the Egypt. PORTAL, Sir Gerald H. My Mission to Abyssinia; map, port. and ill. 15/- 8° Arnold 91

Acc. of the Engl. mission to Abyss. in '87–'88, wh. had its orig. in the intrusion of the Italns. into the country on the shore of the Red Sea abandoned by Egyptns. in '84, to wh. the Abyssns. had set up a claim. Author (d. 1894) was H.B.M. Agent and Consul-Gen. at Zanzibar, and his narrative is personal and descriptive rather than political.

SMITH, F. Harrison Through Abyssinia: an envoy's ride to the King of Zion 8° 7/6 Unwin / $2 Armstrong, N.Y. 90

The author, a naval man, accomp. Sir W. Hewett on the mission to Abyssinia wh. led to a treaty in wh. England guaranteed to the late kg. John the possess. of the Bogos country and free trade thro' Massawa, in consid. of his help in releasing the Egyp. garrisons at that time still in the Sudan. Posthumously edited by his wife, partly in vindication of him agst. STANLEY'S charge of his having provoked a horrible scene of cannibalism. Ill. v. good.

JEPHSON, A. J. Mounteney Emin Pasha and the Rebellion at Equator ; Pref. by H. M. Stanley ; map & ill. 8° 21/– Low [90] 90 / $3.75 Scribner, N.Y. 90

Acc., by one of STANLEY'S officers, of the 9 months' exper. in the "last of the Soudan provinces." Told with excellent temper and taste, self-forgetfulness and modesty.

JOHNSTON, Dr. Jas. [Am.] Reality versus Romance in South Central Africa ; maps and 51 pl. 8° $4 Chicago / 21/– Hodder 93

Across the continent fr. Benguella on the West, thro' Bihe, Ganguella, Barotse, Kalihari Desert, Mashonald., Manica, Gorongoza, Nyassa, the Shire Highlds., to mouth of Zambesi on E. coast. The main object of the journey was to test the author's "belief that black men from Jamaica, by reason of their more ready adaptability to climatic conditions and supposable racial sympathy, could be advantageously employed for the Christianization and civilization of the African savage tribes." Conts. also a good deal of keen general observation, supported by an evident desire for rigid adherence to truth. Hostile to Brit. S. Afr. Co.'s policy.

THOMSON, J. P. [Austral.] British New Guinea ; map and c. 50 ill. 21/-m 8° Philip 93
A good and compreh. book, largely based on Sir Wm. MACGREGOR'S exploratns., w. contributions by Bar. Ferd. v. MÜLLER, Sir Wm. MACGREGOR, and other Australians. The orig. MS. and illns. went down with the Quetta, so that the MS. had to be hastily rewritten, of wh. it shows some traces.

Samoa (or Navigators' Islands).

STEVENSON, Rob. Louis A Foot-note to History : eight years of trouble in Samoa c 8° 6/- Cassell [92] 93 / $1.50 Scribner, N.Y. 92
A hist. of the troubles in Samoa fr. the time when Gt. Brit., the United States and Germany stepped in to preserve the peace, insisting on the recognition by all the 5 sovereign provinces of Malietoa as king of all Samoa, to the great hurricane [admirably described], which alone the British ship Calliope escaped, and which suddenly changed the current of affairs. The intrigues of Germany, and the disputes which arose betw. the Great Powers, at one time threatening to involve serious consequences, are set forth w. great moderation, facts bg. allowed to speak for themselves, tho' the result is a heavy indictment agst. Germany.

Life and People.

ADAMS, Frcs. — The Australians: a social sketch — 10/6 — 8° Unwin — 93

Partly repr. fr. The Fortnightly Review. Economic, social and political, fr. a democratic and vaguely Socialistic stdpt. Suggestive, penetrative and "smart," yet too decisive, regarding the community—pace Sir Chas. DILKE—as temporarily "played out," but having great recuperative elements.

Recent Travel and Description.

PARKES, Sir Harry — Fifty Years in the Making of Australian History, 2 vols.; ports. — 32/- ($5) — 8° Longman — 92

PARKES, an entirely self-made man, who landed at Port Jackson (without 1/- in his pocket and a Chartist) some 50 yrs. ago without introductions, was Prime-Minister of N.S.W. 1872-75, '77, '78-'79, and his autobiogr. is of considerable general interest. The histor. pt. of the bk. is of less interest: as a whole it forms a sort of Parliamentary History of the colony. The great object of his life—the creation of a confederated Australia—seems at length to be within measurable distance of accomplishment.

Five hundred Years' Struggle [A.D. 1200–1699] betw. Science, Ignorance and Superstition. Sketches of ROG. BACON, DANTE, PETRARCH, BOCCACCIO, WICLIF, CHAUCER, HUSS, GUTENBERG, CAXTON, COLUMBUS, MACHIAVELLI, COPERNICUS, LUTHER, RABELAIS, LOYOLA, MONTAIGNE, Tycho BRAHE, Fcs. BACON, SHAKSP., GALILEO, KEPLER, HARVEY, GROTIUS, HOBBES, DESCARTES, PASCAL, SPINOZA, LOCKE, NEWTON.

SMITH, Hy. Greenhough The Romance of History; port. 15/- 8° Bentley 92

Readable sketches of the careers of MASANIELLO, LOCHIEL, BAYARD, Marino FALIERO, BENYOWSKI, TAMERLANE, Jacqueline de LAGUETTE, CASANOVA, Wm. LITHGOW, VIDOCQ, Prince RUPERT. Clear and bright, if somewhat threadbare, and contg. more "romance" than "history."

Miscellaneous Works.

BREWER, Dr. E. Cobham The Historic Note-book [pp. x., 997] c 8° 10/6 Smith & Elder / $3.50 Lippincott, Phila. 91

Not entirely trustworthy and rather badly arranged; but nevertheless useful if the reader will verify the statements he accepts from it. Full of out-of-the-way information, w. an Appendix of Battles.

LITTLE, C. E. [Am.] Historical Lights [c. 1000 doub.-col. pp.] $5 r 8° Funk, N. Y. 86

6000 quotations fr. standard hists. and biogs. (chfly. of facts and incidents) w. 20,000 cross refs. and general index and index of personal names.

STEVENSON, Fcs. S. Historic Personality 4/6 ($1.25) c 8° Macmillan 93

An inquiry into the various methods (history, biography, autobiogr., diaries, memoirs, etc.) by which we are assisted to realize the personality of great men of the past—showing that there can be no permanent divorce betw. history and biography. Spec. good chap. on Diaries, and a useful (tho' not original) comparison of EVELYN with PEPYS.

2. PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY.

Generally.

DROYSEN, Prf. Joh. Gust. —in his Outl. of Princ. of Hist., ut D § 167, s.v. History.

One of the best pts. of the bk. is a weighty criticism of BUCKLE'S Hist. of Civilisation [ut B.B. F § 4].

PAYNE, Edw. Jno. —in his Hist. of the New World called America, ut E § 54.

Consid. space is devoted to his theory of origins of hist., civilizn. and religion as ill. by his subject—his general conception of history coinciding substantially w. that repres. by BUCKLE.

Philosophy of Naval History.

MAHAN, Capt. A. T. [Am.] The Influence of Sea-Power upon History: 1660–1783 8° $4 Little & B., Bost. / 18/- Low 90

An interesting bk., by a capt. in the U.S. navy. The purpose of the author, who justly regrets the tendency of his countrymen dur. the last 20 yrs. to direct national energies inland an l to turn away fr. the sea and maritime rule, is to show the importance of "sea-power" in the hist. of the world in 17 and 18 cents.—that is, the effect of national greatness on the sea upon national prosperity and the march of empire.

" " The Influence of Sea-Power on the French Revolution, 2 vols. 8° $6 Little & B., Bost. / 30/- Low [93] 93

A sequel to above, showing more vividly than had been presented before the effect of Engl. preponderance on the sea in counteracting the designs of NAPOLEON.

4. HISTORY OF CIVILIZATION.

Generally.

DECOUDRAY, Gustave — The History of Modern Civilization, ed. and tr. Rev. J. Verschoyle; ill. 9/- c 8° Chapman 91

An admirable and very compact summary, well ed. by the Engl. tr., forming w. his Hist. of Anc. Civil. [ut B.B. F § 4] a tr. of his Histoire Sommaire de la Civilisation, wh. is in 1 vol.

5. GENERAL AND SPECIAL TREATISES.

Generally.

LAING, Sam. — —in his Human Origins, ut H § 100.

PAYNE, Edw. J. — —in his History of the New World, called America, ut E § 54.

RECLUS, Elie — Primitive Folk: studies in compar. ethnol. [tr.]; port. c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 91

A suggestive, fresh and epigrammatic work, well tr., tho' it appears as an orig. wk. written for the series of wh. it forms a part [3rd Fch. ed. appeared 1885]. The types of Primit. Folk selected are the Inoits (Esquimaux), the Apaches, the Nairs, the Todas and other Neilgherry tribes, and the Kolarians of Bengal. Accepts matriarchal theory; it is in fact his test of Primitiveness, to wh. fact may perhaps be attrib. his omission of much more prim. races than his own type (e.g. Australs., Afr. negroes, Bushmans).

SIMCOX, [Miss] Edith J. — Primitive Civilizations, 2 vols. 8° Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. 94

A hist. of ownership and agrarian and econ. condns. amg. anc. Egyptns. and Babylonians, anc. and mod. Chinese, and scattered stocks of apparently kindred origin.

Aryan Race.

GUMMERE, Prf. Frcs. B. [Am.] — Germanic Orgins: a study in primitive culture [popular] c 8° $2 Scribner, N. Y. / 10/6 Nutt 92

A succinct and well-arrgd. summary of what is to be gleaned of Germanic thought and life from classical and German remains. In 16 chaps., ea. dealing w. a definite section of early German life.

Law — —v. also D § 5.

CHERRY, Prf. Rich. R. — Lects. on the Growth of Criminal Law in Ancient Communities 5/- nt. ($1.25) 8° Macmillan 91

After an introd. lect. on prim. custom, deals successively w. anc. Irish law, law of Semitic races, Roman penal law, Early English Penal Law, early Engl. criminal law, w. the view of showing that identity of usage arose fr. the inherent principles of human nature, not from adoption by one nation to another.

Hebrew.

Generally.

WINES, Prf. Enoch C. [Am.] — Commentaries on the Laws of the Ancient Hebrews $2. 8° Presb. Bd. of Pub., Phila. 59

MENDELSOHN, S. [Am.] — The Criminal Jurisprudence of the Ancient Hebrews $2.50 nt. 8° Curlander, Baltimore 91

Compiled fr. the Talmud and Rabbinical writings, and compared w. Roman and Engl. penal jurisprudence. By an Amer. Rabbi.

Russia.

KOVALEVSKY, Prf. Maxime — Modern Customs & Ancient Laws of Russia [Ilchester Lectures, 1889–90] 7/6 8° Nutt 91

Matrimon. Customs, Joint Household Community, Village Community, Folk-motes, Parliaments, Orig. etc. of Personal Servitude.

Wales.

LEWIS, Hubert — The Ancient Laws of Wales, [posthum.] ed. w. notes Prf. J. E. Lloyd 12/6 8° Stock [90] 92

First half of bk. consists of an exam. of those pts. of the Welsh laws wh. treat of pers. nal status and land-tenure, remainder is taken up w. a like inquiry into nature of some old English institutions; and it is upon the similarity wh. the author sees betw. the anc. Welsh and Engl. systems that he has based his main thesis, viz., that both are developments of early British law. Methods unsound and style forbiddingly ponderous; but with much good material, the coll. of wh. took up the late author's entire life.

Marriage, the Family, Matriarchal and Patriarchal Theories.

ADAMS, Hy. [Am.] — Primit. Rights of Women—in his Histor. Essays, ut F § 1 [disclaims capture or purchase theories].

GARNETT, Lucy M. J. — —her Women of Turkey [ut B § 31] conts. chaps. on orig. of matriarchy.

LETOURNEAU, Prf. Chas. — The Evolution of Marriage and of the Family [tr.] [Contemp. Science Series] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 91

Ethnological summary of facts rel. to orig. and growth of marriage and the family among savages, arranged under the headings of races and periods of civilization.

MCLENNAN, J. F. — The Origin of Exogamy—in English Historical Review, Jan. '88 5/- m 8° Longman 88

An important supplement to his works in B.B. F § 5.

WESTERMARCK, Dr. Edw. — A History of Human Marriage; w. Pref. Alf. Russel Wallace 14/- nt. ($4) 8° Macmillan [91] 94

Accepts the principle of nat. selection as adequate to solve all difficulties, regarding the actions and sentiments of man fr. a purely biological point of view—thus in direct antagonism to MCLENNAN, to whom marriage is a relationship resting on contract and approved by custom or laws. In favour of a supposed early condition of promiscuity. His dissection of theory of secondary sexual characters is especially valuable. Orig. pub. (on smaller scale, in English) 8° Helsingfors '89.

Child Marriage and Enforced Widowhood (India)—v. D § 133 and D § 111.

F § 6

Music, Primitive —v. I § 123.

Property, Primitive and Early; Land-Holding; Village Communities—v. also D § 119.

ANDREWS, Dr. Chas. McLean [Am.] The Old English Manor: study in Engl. econ. hist. $1.50 Johns Hopk. Univ. Pr., Baltim. 92 / 8° 6/- nt. Macmillan 93

An excellent sketch of English pre-Conquest manorial life in 6 chaps.: The Lands; Lord and Tenantry; The Landless; Followers and Slaves; Special Workers; The Yearly Routine; Farm Utensils and Recreation, w. elabor. Intro. on the hist. of the question. Based on a careful study of the docums., well arranged, clear and non-partisan. Develops EARLE'S view [ut infra], regarding the village as orig. a subdivision of a clan, the kindred, and that the Lord of the Manor thus had his origin in the hered. head of the clan. Johns Hopkins Univ. Studies.

ASHLEY, Prf. W. J. The English Manor—in Fustel de Coulanges' Origin of Property in Land, ut infra.

" " The Character of Villein Tenure 15*c.* 8° Am. Acad. of Pol. & Soc. Sci., Phila.

Claims to show that the Engl. labourer of time of Tudors was practically a slave.

BRYAN, Enoch A. [Am.] The Mark in Europe and America c 8° $1 Ginn, Boston / 4/6 Arnold 93

A review of the discussion on early land tenure.

DE COULANGES, Fustel Origin of Property in Land [tr.]; w. Intro. Prf. W. J. Ashley [Soc. Sci. Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N. Y. 91

An able argument agst. communal holding of land, seeking to show that the opinions of MAURER, VIOLLET, MOMMSEN, LAVELEYE and JUBAINVILLE, who support the existence of an orig. agrarian community, are without historical foundation. Ably repl. to by GLASSON in Les Communaux et le Domaine Rural à l'Epoque Franque. Prf. ASHLEY'S Intro. on The English Manor (chfly. in support of SEEBOHM'S theory of its Rom. origin) conts. a good deal of val. information.

EARLE, Prf. Jno. Introd. [100 pp.] to his Handbk. to the Land Charters, etc.—ut B.B. F § 18.

Sets forth the view that the Lord of the Manor grew out of the military chiefs of the groups of Ang.-Sax. invaders: developed by ANDREWS, ut supra.

GOMME, Geo. Laur. The Village Community; maps and ill. [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 90

With special reference to the origin and form of its survivals in Britain. Adds a good deal of new informn. to the researches of NASSÉ, MAINE and SEEBOHM [ut B.B. F § 5].

" " Folklore Relics of Early Village Life o.p. [w. 7/6] 8° Stock 83

A study in comparative custom and superstition, w. special reference to their character as survivals of early village life.

LAFARGUE, Paul The Evolution of Property fr. Savagery to Civilisation [Social Science Series] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N. Y. 91

Forms of Contemporaneous Property, Primitive Communism, Family or Consanguine Collectivism, Feudal Property, Bourgeois Property. Socialist standpoint.

LETOURNEAU, Prf. Chas. Property: its origin and [early] development [tr.] [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N. Y. 92

A sort of sequel to his Evol. of Marr. and the Family [ut sup.], to a small extent traversing the same ground, and giving a condensed view of the subject.

SEEBOHM, Frederic has in preparation a book on the Celtic open-field system of tillage, incorporating the lecture he deliv. in 1890 before the Hon. Soc. of Cymmrodorion.

*VINOGRADOFF, Prf. Paul Villainage in England; w. elab. Intro., notes and appendices 8° 16/- Clar. Press / $4 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 92

An erudite and scholarly endeavour, based largely on MS. materials, to reconstruct the Engl. village of the Mid. Ages (temp. 1150–1350), to analyze the condition of the peasantry, their duties, rights, relations to their lords and to the state, to detect the processes wh. are making for their emancip. or depression and servitude. Comprizes only two essays—Peasantry of the Feudal Age and The Manor and the Village Community—of a larger wk. orig. pub. in Russian, here tr. by author himself. The two essays of the orig. not tr. are on The Domesday Book and The Saxon Epoch. Author promises two new essays in English on the Norman and pre-Norman periods, thus writing his history backwards—a natural plan.

It is a most disastrous loss to science that, owing to the death of the author, this important wk. can never be completed by him. It is a splendid subj. for a first-rate historian, and as far as it has gone is almost perfectly treated. In no other land have we in such a narrow compass so much topograph. hist. and ethnology, occupied as it has been successively by Iberians, Phœnicians, Greeks, Romans, Vandals, Arabs, Normans, Frenchmen, Spaniards, Englishmen and Italians. There is no historical hiatus, no natural line 'tween anc. and modern hist., a "unity of history" which specially suits FREEMAN'S views. The 3 vols. pub. cont. what is probably his finest work, clear, forcible, exhibiting minute acquaintance with topograph. detail and the original authorities; and having been written largely on the scene of the events described, it has abundant local colour. Vol. i. The Native Nations; the Phœnic. and Gk. Settlements; ii. From beginning of Gk. Settlemt. to beg. of Athen. Intervention; iii. The Athen. and Carthaginian Invasions [to B.C. 410-404]. A posth. vol., ed. Arth. J. EVANS, his son-in-law, is to appear.

Posthumously pub., w. an Introd. by Arth. J. EVANS (his son-in-law). Ends w. time of Const. the Fifth [965]. "In order to write a small history, you must first write a large one," was a favourite saying of FREEMAN, and this seems to have been the genesis of his monumental wk., ut sup.

Biography.

THE CÆSARS.

Gould, Rev. S. Baring- The Tragedy of the Cæsars, 2 vols. ; ill. r 8° 30/- Methuen / $7.50 Scribner, N.Y. 92

The personal hist. of the Emperors of the Julian and Claudian lines, one of the greatest periods in all history, copiously ill. fr. busts, gems, cameos, etc. Takes a novel view of the later life of TIBERIUS, making out a good case for his acquittal of the atrocities usually charged to him ; and author has a general tendency to whitewash his "blackguards of genius."

CÆSAR, Julius [B.C. 100–44].

Dodge, Lt.-Col. Th. A. [Am.] Cæsar : hist. of art of war among the Romans to end of Rom. Emp.; maps, plans and ill. [v. Punic Wars (DODGE) sup.] 8° $5 Houghton, Boston / 20/- nt. Gay & Bird 92

Fowler, W. Warde Julius Cæsar, and the Foundation of the Roman Empire ; ill. [Heroes of the Nations] $1.50 (5/-) c 8° Putnam 92

Praises Cæsar without maligning Cicero, whose honesty he does not impugn, though he thinks his cause was from the beginning a lost one. Nearly a third of the vol. is given to the campaigns in Gaul, wh. the general reader will find the most interesting part.

CICERO [B.C. 106–43].

OMAN, C. W. C. The Byzantine Empire ; maps, ill. and index [Story of the Nations] c 8° $1.50 Putnam, N.Y. / 5/- Unwin 92

A good popular bk. compressing the hist. of nearly 12 cents. into 350 small pp. in the spirit of FINLAY [vols. ii.-iii. 1856, ut B.B. F § 11] and BURY [1889, ut B.B. F § 12] rather than of GIBBON [1776-'88, ut B.B. F § 12], who entirely fails i to recognise the great wk. performed by the East-Roman Empire in holding back the Saracen and in keeping alive throughout the Dark Ages the lamp of learning, and whose verdict no historian had ventured to dispute for ab. 80 yrs.

Constantinople : Fall of [A.D. 1453].

MIJATOVICH, Chedomil Constantine [xii.], the last Emperor of the Greeks ; ill. [w. an extens. bibliogr.] 7/6 c 8° Low 92

A fairly good study of the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks in 1453 ; in English, by the author of the Life of George Brankovich, the Despot of Servia, wh. was an attempt to whitewash that very dusky potentate—futile as a biography but full of laboriously-collected matter, of great value for the student of the last days and fall of Constantinople who can read Servian. Author was formerly Servian Minister at Court of St. James.

*PASPATÉS, Dr. A. G. The Great Palace of Constantinople, tr. (fr. Mod. Gk.) Wm. Metcalfe ; map 10/6 8° Gardner, Paisley 93

A very elaborate and valuable monograph on the locality, situation of edifices etc. of the Great Palace, wh. was the central point of Byzant. Middle Ages—the site of wh. was lost. LABARTE'S Le Palais Impérial de Constantinople [Paris, 1864 ; before excavns. had been undertaken] was the first serious attempt to locate it. Of great value for the Turkish siege of Constantinople.

A sketch of constit. hist. for nearly 2000 yrs., fr. time of Teutons of CÆSAR and TACITUS to Brit. Empire and U.S. of 1890, fr. anc. folk-moots to the mod. Parliamt. There is much confusion as to the word Anglo-Saxon here, the author appearing to regard the "English-speaking race" at large as a single people, and Anglo-Saxons, Saxons and English as synonymous terms; but the sketch is interesting and instructive. In later chaps. author points out that the hopes of freedom in future rest w. speakers of Engl. lang., and hints at possibilities of an Engl.-speaking union to comprize N. Amer., Gt. Brit., Austral. and connected states.

DE MANDEVILLE, Geoffrey

Round, J. H. — Geoffrey de Mandeville: a study of the Anarchy; w. facss. of charter — 16/– ($5) — 8° Longman — 92

An excellent and learned study (tho' defective in literary form) of the obscure period of the struggle betw. STEPHEN and his rival, the Empress MAUD, known as "the anarchy." He selects Geoff. de MANDEVILLE (grandson and heir of another Geoff. de MANDEVILLE, a companion of Wm. the Conqueror) as the most perfect and typical presentment of the feudal and anarchic spirit that distinguished this period, and the story (never before told) of his ambition, rapid growth of power and sudden fall, his wild revolt and dramatic end, is a very striking one. Throughout the bk. author discusses several pts. of constit. hist. and institutional developmt. [e.g. right of succession to crown, orig. and character of earldoms, judicial and fiscal systems of the time, early admin. of London], basing his work largely on charters and docums., of wh. many are new to students and some are here printed.

"MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER" Flores Historiarum, ed. Dr. Hy. Rich. Luard, 3 vols. — ea. 10/– r 8° Rolls Series — 90

A masterly critical edn. of a work first pub. by Abp. PARKER in 1567, the authorship having been then attrib. to "MATTHEW OF WESTMINSTER," who, Dr. LUARD here convincingly shows, never had any existence but in imagination. He proves that the bk. itself was a mediæval compilation, wh. many monasteries copied and tinkered, 20 MSS. of wh. in England and 1 in the Bibl. Natl. Paris the ed. has examined, w. result that he considers all derived fr. 2 orig. authorities, one in Chetham Lib., Mancs. (written at St. Albans) and the other in Lib. of Eton College (written early 14 cent.). Preface to vol. iii. gives an exhaustive summary of addns. made by the various copyists. BURKE, S. Hub. Historical Portraits of the Tudor Dynasty and the Reformation Period, 4 vols.—ut A § 62.

*BUSCH, Dr. Wilh. England under the Tudors, tr. Rev. A. H. Johnson Innes in prep.

Tr. of England unter den Tudors: König Heinrich viii. [8° Cotta, Stuttg. '93], the first of a series of six vols. It is a masterly survey of Hy. viii's. rn., his policy as regards treaties, alliances and wars, trade and commerce, voyages of discov., industrial legislation and fiscal and juridical reforms—the most complete study (in the nature of essays rather than consecutive narrative) of the period in any language. Three appendices: (1) notes on the text, (2) analysis of sources, (3) list of authorities cited in the bk.

ARCHBOLD, W. A. J. The Somerset Religious Houses [Camb. Histor. Essays] c 8° 10/6 Camb. Press / $2.50 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

The Prince Consort Prize Essay, 1890. Entirely impartial and fairly-well arranged, ea. chap. being followed by illns. fr. MS. authority (very carelessly printed; Latin often mis-spelt). Its many comments on social state of Tudor period and its brief sketches of chief actors in Dissolution drama and its effects on cond. of poor, educ., agric., wages, prices, etc., make interesting as well as valuable reading.

GASQUET, Rev. F. A. Henry viii. and the Suppression of the Monasteries [ut B.B. F § 22]: Ill. Edn., 2 vols. 30/– nt. r 8° Hodges [88; 89] 92; 93

33 illns. and 5 maps—all very poor. The bk. itself, by a Rom.-Cath. (forming pt. of the "Cath. Standard Lib."), is scholarly and interesting.

Spanish Armada.

FROUDE, Prf. Jas. Anth. The Spanish Story of the Armada: and other essays—ut K § 83.

Traces the story of the equipmt., despatch and defeat of the Armada as the Spanish chroniclers of the period have described them. Avowedly based on the recent researches of Cpt. Fernandez DURO, whose Armada Invencible [1885] is a coll. of exceedingly curious and interesting letters and docums. bearing on the subj.

CATHERINE OF ARAGON [1483–1536].

Froude, Prf. Jas. Anth. The Divorce of Catherine of Aragon c 8° 6/– Longman [91] 92 / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91

The story as told by the Imperial Ambassadors resident at the court of Hy. viii. Its real purpose, however, is to justify Hy. viii., arguing that the divorce was a mere matter of policy and that Hy. did not fall in love w. Anne Boleyn until long after it was projected. It forms a kind of Appendix to the author's Hist. of Engl. [ut supra]—the views of Hy's. pure-minded, patriotic policy expressed in which he here, after 35 yrs'. interval, seeks to confirm: and that fr. the very class of papers wh. to historical specialists have seemed most unfavourable to Hy's. character. The title-page states that the bk. is written in usum Laicorum, wh. it has been cleverly suggested shd. be tr. "for the benefit of those who know no better." It is a brilliant, but manifest, piece of special pleading.

Sources.

Calendar of State Papers, Domestic Series, of rn. of Charles i. ; vols. xix.–xxii. [1644–1649], ed. Wm. Douglas Hamilton ea. 15/– i 8° Rolls Series 90–93

These later vols. of the series are much more meagre and less interesting than the earlier ones—either by reason of the originals never having been filed in those troublous times or of the damaging corresp. having been intentionally destroyed when the Restoration became a certainty. Vol. xxii. [1648–49] has a valuable Introd. by HAMILTON, contg. the best personal estimate of CHARLES we have.

" " " Committee for Compounding, ed. Mary A. Everett Green : 1643–'60, 5 vols. ea. 15/– i 8° " " 89–93

A laborious wk., full of valuable local and personal information—not limited to Royalists only. These "Royalist Composition Papers" clearly show—what it has been the custom ever since the Restoration to affirm—that the Committee for Compounding were unduly harsh and even cruel, partic. to the Royalist clergy ; tho' WALKER'S Sufferings of the Clergy [1714] (wh. purported to do for the Royalist sufferers of the Civil War much the same thing as FOXE in his Book of Martyrs did for the martyrs of the Marian time) proves that the Roy. clergy were as unmeasured in their language as the wildest of their Puritan adversaries.

Largely a panegyric on Judaism, and a denunciation of the Roman-Catholic church as the root of all evils, political and social, in the Dual Monarchy.

ROCQUAIN, F. The Revolutionary Spirit preceding Fch. Revol., abgd. and tr. J. D. Hunting [Social Science Ser.] c 8° 2/6 Sonnenschein / $1 Scribner, N.Y. [91] 93

Conts. an Introd. by Prof. HUXLEY. Very well abgd. and tr. by Miss HUNTING. Author's view is that the Revol. was not the outcome of the teaching of the philosophers (VOLTAIRE, DIDEROT, ROUSSEAU), as is commonly held, but was due to the ancien régime itself, w. the corruption of its Court and Church, and the despotism of the Papacy, wh. effectually undermined all respect for authority, whether civil or religious, and justified the worst that was or could be said by the philosophers later on, and his bk. clearly shows how a spirit of opposition was gradually transformed into a spirit of revolution by the middle of the century, on the point of breaking out before the philosophers came to do their wk.

*STEPHENS, H. Morse History of the French Revolution, vol. ii. [1791–93] [to occupy 5 vols.] 8° 18/- Longman / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 91

A marvellously painstaking and accurate work, sifting and bringing into an organic whole a vast accumulation of reports, pamphlets, monographs, études, Programme and magazine articles; his very copiousness indeed making him at times a little hard to read. Gives great prominence to the condition of the provinces. "Passionately" impartial, having no heroes, no demi-gods and no friends, Mr. Stephens belongs to the new school of historians of whom MM. Alb. SOREL and F. A. AULARD are the chief representatives. An appendix gives an elab. analysis of the sub-divisions and indiv. members of the Girondin faction.

The 1-vol. edn. is slightly abgd. fr. the 2-vol. edn., wh. was itself a judicious compression of the original 3 vols. (Paris 1892). MARBOT was a General of Division under NAPOLEON and later a peer of France. His Memoirs are extremely attractive and a distinct addn. to the literature of war and of adventure.

DE TALLEYRAND, Prince [1754–1838] Memoirs, ed. w. notes Duc de Broglie [tr.], 5 v.; ports. and facss. — 8° ea. 21/- net. Griffith / ea. $2.50 Putnam, N.Y. — 91–92

These Memoirs are said by the Duc de BROGLIE to be those left by TALLEYRAND w. directions that they were not to be pub. till 50 years after his death. At request of NAPOLEON iii. in 1868, pubn. was postponed till 1890. They are on the whole very disappointing, containing very little of permanent histor. value: and their actual genuineness is very uncertain. Prf. FLAMMERMONT has pub. a pamphlet on the quest. of their authenticity, almost conclus. showing that there was an original on wh. M. de BACOURT worked, and that in a previous wk. he had completely altered letters wh. unfavourably affected the character of TALLEYRAND: the Athenæum's verdict being that it is "at least likely that de BACOURT altered TALLEYRAND'S original memoirs and then destroyed them." [G. PALLAIN'S edn. of T's. Corresp. (tr. ut 𝔅.𝔅. E § 50) is a much more truthful and more interesting wk.]. Badly tr. Vols. i.–ii. tr. by R. Ledos de BEAUFORT, v. iii.–v. by Mrs. Angus HALL.

Based on the fullest and minutest research; contains a striking and brilliant picture of NAPOLEON'S superhuman power [v. inf. s.v. NAPOLEON]. It is, however, the history of a littérateur not of a historian, "explaining" the Revol. and all its products by attrib. it to mingled crime and madness, and scarcely attempting an impartial investigation. Ford, Clarence — Life and Letters of Madame de Krudener; 2 ports. — 8° — 15/- Black; $4.50 Macmillan, N.Y. — 93

An interesting, and careful, tho' very poorly written, acc. (the first in Engl.) of the Baronne (a Russian girl), who achieved considerable notoriety under the First Empire and in Days of the Restoration, and who later on, as a converted sinner, became a prophetess and evangelical saint, exercising a great influence over ALEX. I. of Russia (the author shows that its influence was not so great or so enduring as usually supposed). Her liter. reputn. depends on her novel Valérie [=an impassioned autobiogr. 1803], written in rivalry of Mme. de STAËL'S Delphine [1802].

DE LESSEPS, Ferd.

Smith, G. Barnett — Life and Enterprises of Ferdinand de Lesseps; 2 ports. — 7/6 c 8° W. H. Allen — 93

A clear and sensible biography, giving a temperate acc. of LESSEPS' remarkable career, as a diplomatist in St. Petersbg., Tunis, Madrid, and Rome, and of his share in the project of the Suez Canal (opened 1869), and in the disastrous Panama Canal.

LOUIS XVII. [the Dauphin; 1785–1795].

Evans, [Mrs.] Elizab. E. — The Story of Louis xvii. of France; 5 engr. ports. — 10/6 — 8° Sonnenschein — 93

Seeks to show that Eleazer WILLIAMS [d. 1858], the Amer.-Indian Missionary, was the Dauphin, refuting the claims of NAUNDORFF and other minor pretenders [HERVAGAULT, Mathurin BRUNEAU, RICHMONT]. Incl. a bibliogr. of the Pretenders.

A straightforward narrative, full of the exploits, sufferings and escapes of one of the leading Marshals of the Empire during the wars of the First Napoleon, whose fame is familiar to Engl. people, partly on acc. of his Scottish descent, partly on acc. of the import. pt. he played at Wagram. Conts. interesting informn. as to Nap.'s conduct and bearing on some of the most important occasions and good anecdotes of some of his celebrated companions in arms. Not v. well tr.

Morris, W. O'Connor — Napoleon, Warrior and Ruler, and Milit. Suprem. of Fce.; ill. — [Heroes of Nations] $1.50 (5/-) c 8° Putnam — 93

An interesting, well-arrgd. sketch of the man and his extraordinary career, distinctly eulogistic but not partizan. Emphasizes the purely polit. and admin. side of N's. work—often too much ignored (espec. by Engl. writers)—and gives the best short acc. in Engl. of his services to Europe: "he contributed to the fall of the old Germ. Emp., wh. kept Germy. in the shackles of the past; he encouraged the dream of an independ. Italy; his oppression fused tog. the Teutonic race, and effaced the divisions wh. made it powerless." "United Germy. and United Italy wd. not have yet existed without his wk., and if Modern Europe is at length on the path of true progress, she is indebted to him as her creator."

HASTINGS, Warren [Gov.-Gen. of India; 1732–1818].

Forrest, Prf. Geo. W. The Administration of Warren Hastings—ut supra, s.v. British India: Sources.

Of much importance in HASTINGS literature—a further step towards righting the reputn. of a man who has suffered unduly at the hands of his contemporaries and more at those of posterity. The process of (partial) "white-washing" was commenced by Cpt. L. J. TROTTER in his Life of Hastings [1878; ut 16,18. F § 27]; Sir Jas. STEPHEN destroyed the MACAULAY-myth of the judicial murder of NUNCOMAR [1885; ut ib.]; and Sir Jno. STRACHEY has exposed Jas. MILL'S inaccuracy and MACAULAY'S malevolence in his bk. infra.

Lyall, Sir Alf. C. Warren Hastings [English Men of Action] 2/6 (60c.) c 8° Macmillan 89

An excellent and well-written monograph.

F § 62

Macaulay, Thos. B., Ld. Essay on Warren Hastings [1841] ; ed. w. notes and appends. K. Deighton [Engl. Classics] 2/6 (50c.) f 8° Macmillan 93

The essay—mainly drawn fr. Edm. BURKE'S speeches and Jas. MILL'S Hist. of Brit. India [vt B.B., F § 62], wh. has caused much false hist. to be written and misled millions of readers. DEIGHTON'S notes (some of wh. are very elementary) and long Appendices (contg. much inform. on Rohilla War, trial of NUNCOMAR and impeachmt. of IMPEY) go a long way tow. rectifying the text.

Temple, Sir Rich. James Thomason [Supplem. Vol. to Rulers of India] c 8° 3/6 Clar. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An interesting acc., largely drawn fr. pers. recolln., of a man of lofty ideals, giving prominence to the relig. aspects of THOMASON'S character : he was a Low-Churchman of the schl. of Chas. SIMEON, whose godson he was. A good deal of matter of Indian interest is incl. (e.g. chap. on the Land Settlement).

WELLESLEY, Rich. Colley, Marquess of [Gov.-Gen. of India ; 1760–1842].

Hutton, Rev. W. H. The Marquess Wellesley [Rulers of India] c 8° 2/6 Clar. Press / 60c. nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

A well-written acc. of the career, aims and methods of "the glorious little man," the conqueror of TIPU SULTAN and the Marathas, and one of the greatest Anglo-Ind. statesmen—under whose rule the Company developed into supreme power in India. The part rel. to his polit. career in Engl. and Irel. is rather inadequate.

MIVART, Dr. St. George An Introduction to the Elements of Science; ill. 6/– c 8° Osgood 93

Regarding "science" as "nothing more than plain reason and common sense used in a methodical manner, and applied to the exam. of various objects around us w. as much exactness as possible" (thus making it synon. w. "knowledge"), it consists of a series of brief sketches of Number, Mathemes, Phys. Laws, Non-living World, Living World, Man, and a summary [Politics, Ethics and Theology not discussed]. Too large a scope for a single little bk., but excellent for showing the connection betw. all the sciences. No Index.

4. PHILOSOPHY, CONNECTION AND CLASSIFICATION OF THE SCIENCES.

PEARSON, Prf. Karl The Grammar of Science [Contemporary Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N.Y. 92

A very interesting, valuable, and suggestive, but not wholly sound, book, whose primary object is to criticise the fundamental concepts of mod. science, its crit. ranging from "the reality of things" and "the nature of thought" to "the classif. of the sciences." Its chief merit is its exposn. of the meaning of scientific law. A large pt. of bk. is devoted to destructive criticism of NEWTON, THOMSON, TAIT, MAXWELL and other of our most eminent physicists.

A collin. of hints for factorization, w. numerous examples. Examination papers at end.

Determinants.

History of the Theory.

MUIR, Thos. Theory of Determinants in the Histor. Order of its Developmt., vol. i. 10/6 ($2.50) 8° Macmillan 90

This vol. deals w. determinants in general fr. LEIBNITZ [1693] to CAYLEY [1841].

Text-Book.

WELD, Prf. Laenas G. [Am.] A Short Course in the Theory of Determinants $1.90 (7/6) c 8° Macmillan 93

Concise and elem. introd. to subj., a great pt. bg. devoted to discussn. and illust. of fundam. properties of the general forms.

*FORSYTH, Dr. A. R. — Treatise on the Theory of Functions of a Complex Variable; diagrs. — r 8° — 21/- nt. Camb. Press; $8.50 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An excellent and original bk., giving a learned digest of the splendid previous wk. in this subj., w. full and exact refs. to orig. memoirs (some of the chaps. bg. prefaced by a note indicating sources). Chaps. i.-iv. treat of simpler properties of Uniform Functions, their expansion in power-series and their integration; v.-vii. of Uniform Transcendental Functions (giving results of WEIERSTRASS and MITTAG-LEFFLER); viii. of Non-Uniform Functions; subseq. chaps. deal w. Connectivity of Surfaces, RIEMANN'S Surface, Unif. Functs. on the Surface and of their Integrals, form and nature of Integrals and Unif. Functs., theory of Conformal Representation, Automorphic Functs., etc. Indexes of Techn. Terms (Engl. and Germ.), of Authors quoted, and of Subjects.

HARKNESS + MORLEY, Prf. Jas. Prf. Fk. — A Treatise on the Theory of Functions; diagrs. — 18/- nt. ($5 nt.) — 8° Macmillan 93

By two Cambr. men, now Prfs. in Amer. Colleges. An excellent treatise, covering much the same ground as FORSYTH, ut sup., but not so thoroughly or exhaustively, and on that acc. perhaps better suited for a student quite fresh to the subj. In 10 chaps.: a Geom. Introd. on Real Functs. of a Real Variable, Theory of Infinite Lines, Algebraic Functs., Integration, RIEMANN Surfaces, Elliptic Functions, Double Theta-functs., DIRICHLET'S problem, and Abelian Integrals. Very full refs. (w. a table thereof), Gloss. of Terms, and good Index.

KLEIN, Prf. Felix — On Riemann's Theory of Algeb. Functs. & their Integrals [tr.] — 4/6 nt. ($1.40 nt.) — 8° Macmillan 93

A good tr., by [Miss] Frces. HARDCASTLE, of KLEIN'S Ueb. Riemann's Theorie d. algeb. Funct. u. ihrer Integrale, 2m.4o. 8° Teubner, Lpz. '82, presenting the theory of RIEMANN [1851] in a concise and lucid manner.

Trigonometry: Algebraical, and Double Algebra—v. H § 8.

Theory of Numbers.

MATHEWS, G. B. — The Theory of Numbers, Pt. i. — 12/- — 8° Deighton, Camb. 92

The first Engl. wk. on the Theory of Numbers on strictly philos. lines, and the most import. Engl. treatise on the theory on wh. all pure mathem. s. ultimately rests since Prf. H. J. S. SMITH'S Report to the Brit. Assoc. on the then state of the Theory [1859 65], pub. in the Reports for the yrs. 1894-65 [ut B.B. H § 7]. Chap. i. discusses Divisibility of Nos. and elem. theory of Congruencies; followed by 9 chaps. on Quadratic Congruencies, the theory of Binary Quadratic Forms, the Composition of Forms, Cyclotomy, and the Distrib. of Primes. List of authorities.

8. GEOMETRY AND THE APPLICATIONS OF ALGEBRA TO GEOMETRY.

Geometrical Metaphysics.

DIXON, Edw. T. — The Foundations of Geometry — 6/- — 8° Deighton, Camb. 91

His main pts. are (1) that there exists a subjective geometry, whose subjective conclusions are necessary truths, and (2) that these conclusions are also applicable to the objective geometry of material space.

Hyper-Space (Fourth and Higher Dimensions).

BALL, W. W. Rose — —in his Mathematical Recreations and Problems, ut H § 5 [in support of hyper-space].

DIXON, Edw. T. — —in his Foundations [ut sup.] applies his methods to geom. of 4 dimensions.

Parallel Lines: Theory of.

DIXON, Edw. T. — —in his Foundations [ut supra].

Defines "parallel" as equival. to "extending in all the same directions," so that two straight lines are said to be parallel "if they both extend in the same two opposite directions"; and this defn he proceeds to demonstrate.

DODGSON, C. L. — Curiosa Mathematica, pt. i.: A New Theory of Parallels — 2/- (75*c.*) — c 8° Macmillan [88] 90

Plane Geometry.

CASEY, Dr. Jno. — Treat. on Anal. Geometry of Point, Line, Circle and Conic Sections — 12/- — c 8° Hodges, Dubl. [85] 93

With an acc. of its most recent extensions. Numerous examples. Dublin Univ. Press Series.

EUCLID — Elements of Geometry: bks. i.-vi., ed. H. M. Taylor — [Pitt Press Series] — c 8° — 4/- Camb. Press; 75*c. nt.* Macmillan, N.Y. 93

LACHLAN, R. — Elementary Treatise on Modern Pure Geometry — 9/- ($2.25 nt.) — 8° Macmillan 93

Confined to the simple properties of lines and circles. Clear arrangemt., simple proofs and very good coll. of examples.

RICHARDSON + RAMSEY, G. A. G. — Modern Plane Geometry — 3/6 ($1) — gl 8° Macmillan 94

Proofs of the theorems cont. in the Syllabus of Mod. Plane Geom. [1/- c 8° id. ('75) '83] iss. by the Assoc. for Improvemt. of Geom. Teaching. Intended to serve as a sequel to their Elements of Plane Geom. [ut B.B. H § 8], furnishing a system. means of procedure fr. Euclidean geom. to the higher descriptive geom. of conics and of imaginary points.

RUSSELL, Jno. Wellesley — Elementary Treatise on Pure Geometry — c 8° — 10/6 Clar. Press; $2.60 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

More general than LACHLAN'S bk., ut sup., incl. Conics, and bringing together all the well-known theorems and examples conn. w. harmonics, anharmonics, involution, projection (incl. homology) and reciprocation.

SMITH, Dr. Wm. Benj. [Am.] — Introductory Modern Geometry of Point, Ray and Circle — $1.10 (5/-) — c 8° Macmillan 92

Intended for freshmen of the Univ. of State of Missouri (following a very different course fr. the usual Engl. one); but by no means an easy bk. (the Introd. of 22 pp. is a discussn. of Space). First Pt. deals w. lineal, Second w. Areal Relations. Many innovations in terminology: e.g. "ray"=any indefinite straight line, and a part of it=a "tract" or "sect."

H § 9

Circle.

McCLELLAND, W. J. Treat. on Geometry of Circle, and Extensions to Conic Sections 6/– ($1.60) gl 8° Macmillan 91

By the method of Reciprocation. A good bk. for more advanced students in public schls., and for candidates for mathem. honours in the universities. Examples.

Triangle.

GRIFFITHS, Jno. Notes on the Recent Geometry of the Triangle 1/– 8° Simpkin 92

A pamphlet, the obj. of wh. is to prove that the princ. results hitherto obtained by differ. mathematicians w. regard to systs. of circles intersecting the sides of a plane triangle are particular cases of a general theorem. Adopts same mode of treatmt. (trilinear co-ordinates) as in his Notes on Geom. of Plane Triangle, 4/– c 8° Parker '67.

Solid Geometry.

HAYWARD, R. B. Elements of Solid Geometry [fresh and interesting] 3/– (75*c.*) gl 8° Macmillan 90

Trigonometry.

*HOBSON, Dr. E. W. Treatise on Plane Trigonometry [w. numerous examples] 8° 12/– Camb. Press / $3 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 91

A novel and exhaustive treatment of a well-worn subject, by the auth. of art. Trigon. in Encyclo. Brit. (9th edn.). Availing himself of the researches of CAUCHY, ABEL, GAUSS, etc., auth. has placed the theory of infin. series and products, where real or complex qualities are involved, on a firm scient. basis. Invaluable to the senior student.

,, +JESSOP, C. M. Elementary Treatise on Plane Trigonometry [Pitt Press Ser.] c 8° 4/6 Camb. Press / $1.25 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

JONES (Prf. Geo. Wm.)+WAIT+OLIVER [Ams.] Textbook of Trigonometry [excellent bk.] Prf. G. W. Jones, Cornell Univ., Ithaca, N.Y.

LEVETT+DAVISON, Rawdon C. The Elements of Plane Trigonometry, 2 pts. [a good schl.-bk.] ea. 3/6 ; or in 1 vol. 6/6 ($1.60) c 8° Macmillan 92

A good school-bk. Pt. ii. deals w. the real algeb. quantity, and gives a fairly complete treatmt. and theory of the circular and hyperbolic functions consid. geometrically. Pt. iii. deals w. complex nos. geometrically, giving much of DE MORGAN'S teaching in a simple form.

LOCK, Rev. J. B. The Trigonometry of One Angle 2/6 (65*c.*) c 8° Macmillan 92

Intended for use of students who require a knowledge of the properties of sines and cosines for use in the study of elem. mechanics.

LONEY, S. L. Plane Trigonometry, pt. i. c 8° 5/– Camb. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

Up to and incl. the Solution of Triangles ; w. exercises and answers.

NIXON, R. C. J. Elementary Plane Trigonometry [excl. imaginary quantities] c 8° 7/6 Clar. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 92

Double Algebra. Vector-Algebra.

DE MORGAN, Prf. Aug. Trigonometry and Double Algebra o.p. [pb. and w. 7/6] 8° Taylor 49

HAYWARD, R. B. The Algebra of Co-Planar Vectors and Trigonometry 8/6 c 8° Macmillan 92

Primarily concerned w. the logical exposn. and illustrn. of the principles on wh. Algebraic Analysis, incl. Analyt. Trigon., is founded, covering much the same ground as DE MORGAN'S Trig. and Double Algebra [ut sup.], but dealing w. the problems fr. a totally differ. stdpt. and by diff. methods. Forms a good Introd. or Vorschule to Quaternions. It receives its pres. title to indicate that Trigon. is derived from and shown to be a natural devel. of Algebra.

MACFARLANE, Prf. A. [Am.] Principles of the Algebra of Vectors 8° Salem Press, Salem, Mass. 91

A pamphlet, repr. fr. Proceedgs. Amer. Assoc. Advancmt. Science, vol. xl. [1891], confined to statemts. of principles.

HARNACK, Prf. Axel. Introduction to Study of Differential and Integral Calculus [tr.] 10/6 r 8° Williams 91

A storehouse of suggestive methods and ideas for analytical exegesis, to wh. latter it gives great prominence. Of v. little use to exam. student!

MILLER, Thos. Hugh Introduction to the Differential and Integral Calculus [w. examples] 3/6 c 8° Percival (Riv. & Perc.) 91

Differential Equations.

FORSYTH, Dr. A. R. Theory of Differential Equations, pt. i. 8° 12/- Camb. Press / $3.75 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 90

This part deals w. Exact Equations and Pfaff's Problem, forming the first of the addns. promised in his Treat. on Differ. Eqns. [ut B.B. H § 9] to be added to that bk. A thorough and lucid piece of wk., treated in historical form, giving free references to sources of informn.

Quaternions.

HIME, Lt.-Col. H. W. L. The Outlines of Quaternions 10/- c 8° Longman 94

MCAULAY, Alex. The Utility of Quaternions in Physics 5/- nt. ($1.60 nt.) 8° Macmillan 93

A plea for the extended study of quaternions. It was sent (Dec. 1887) to compete for the Smith's Prizes at Cambr.; but was unsuccessful, and the Preface conts. a violent attack on the Cambr. School of Mathematics.

Vector-Algebra —v. H § 8.

Definite Integrals (incl. Elliptic Functions).

GREENHILL, Prf. Alf. Geo. The Applications of Elliptic Functions; diagrs. 12/- ($3) 8° Macmillan 92

A clear and well-arrgd. treatise, prepared for candidates for Camb. Tripos Exam. Excludes the Theta-functions and Theory of Transformation. Author is Prf. of Mathem. in Artillery Coll., Woolwich.

The 4th edn. of a wk. [nt 16.16. H § 10] orig. pub. by the Physical Soc. in a somewhat different form. Contns. much new matter, incl. determinations of viscosities, terrestr. magnetic elements, magnet. properties of iron and other metals and heat measurements. Good as a class-bk. for students as well as for the physics investigator.

HOLMAN, Silas W. Discussion of the Precision of Measurements 8° 10/- Paul / $2 Wiley, N.Y. 93

Intended mainly as a course of study for young engineers and for students of pure science. First Pt. deals w. treatmt. of direct measuremts; Second, w. indirect; Third, w. determination of the best magnitudes of components. Examples.

Newton's "Principia."

BALL, Walt. W. Rouse An Essay on Newton's Principia 6/- nt. ($1.40 nt.) c 8° Macmillan 93

Not merely mathematical, as its title implies, but conts. much histor. informn. also, carefully examining the evid. bearing on the devel. of NEWTON'S great discovery, and supplying many quotns. fr. contemp. sources [several rel. to the (unfounded) claim of HOOKE]. Good bibliography, incl. foreign trs.

Statics. Mechanics.

LOCK, Rev. J. B. — Elementary Statics — 4/6 ($1.10) c 8° Macmillan — 88

*ROUTH, Dr. E. J. — Treatise on Analytical Statics, 2 vols. — [vol. i. 14/– ($3.75 nt.); ii. 10/–] 8° 24/– Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. — 91 ; 92

Assumes a knowl. of the Calculus, analyt. geom. and differ. equations. An indispensable bk. to the would be wrangler, contg an excellent coll. of Camb. problems, w. hints for solution of most of them. Deals almost exclusively w. theoretical Statics, Graphic Statics bg. very slightly treated—a characteristic of the Cambridge school, which has been reared on the solution of problems. Vol. ii. consists of three distinct treatises: Attractions, Bending of Rods, Astatics.

SELLS, V. P. — The Mechanics of Daily Life — [Univ. Extens. Series] 2/6 c 8° Methuen — 93

Does not attempt the mathem. treatmt. generally adopted, but uses the subject as a means of scientific training and an ill. of the method of examining nature by reasoning and experiment.

ZIWET, Prf. Alex. [Am.] — Elementary Treatise on Theoretical Mechanics, 2 pts. — $4.50 nt. (17/– nt.) 8° Macmillan — 93 ; 93

Pt. i.: Kinematics, $2.25 nt. (8/6 nt.); Pt. ii.: Intro. to Dynamics: Statics, $2.25 nt. (8/6 nt.).

Graphic Statics —v. I § 11.

Mechanics of Machinery—v. I § 10 (espec. KENNEDY).

Dynamics.

HICKS, W. M. — Elementary Dynamics of Particles and Solids — 6/6 ($1.60) c 8° Macmillan — 90

LOCK, Rev. J. B. — Elementary Dynamics 3/6 ($1) ; Key [by G. H. Lock] — 8/6 gl 8° ,, — [87] 91; 92

LONEY, S. L. — Treatise on Elementary Dynamics 7/6 ($1.90 nt.) ; Solutions 7/6 ($1.90 nt.) c 8° Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. — [89] 91; 92

WORTHINGTON, A. M. — Dynamics of Rotation ; 95 diagrs. — 3/6 ($1) c 8° Longman — 92

An elementary Introduction to Rigid Dynamics.

Perpetual Motion.

"WATERDALE" — Waterdale Researches: fresh light on dynamics — 5/– c 8° Chapman — 92

Claims to have invented a (complicated but ingenious) hydrodynamic machine (descr. in body of bk.) by wh. the "undoubted theoretical possibility of perpetual motion" is attained. Acknowledges that his wk. would "require at least a month's hard work to comprehend"—wh. were better otherwise employed.

Hydrostatics. Hydrodynamics.

BASSET, A. B. — Elementary Treatise on Hydrodynamics and Sound — 7/6 c 8° Deighton, Camb. — 91

An elementary edn. of his Treatise on Hydrodynamics, nt H. H. § 12.

BESANT, Dr. W. H. — Solutions of Examples in Elem. Hydrostatics [for Examples v. H. H. § 12] f 8° 4/– Bell / $1 Macmillan, N.Y. — 91

GREAVES, Jno. — Treatise on Elementary Hydrostatics — c 8° 5/– Camb. Press / $1.10 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. — 94

GREENHILL, Prf. A. G. — Hydrostatics — 7/6 ($1.90 nt.) c 8° Macmillan — 94

MINCHIN, Prf. G. M. — Hydrostatics and Elementary Hydrokinetics ; diagrs. — c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / $2.60 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. — 92

A very good bk. for the student: w. examples.

13. ACOUSTICS.

BASSET, A. B. — Elementary Treatise on Hydromechanics and Sound—nt H § 12.

Musical Acoustics —v. I § 125.

Voice Figures.

HUGHES, Mrs. Watts — Voice Figures ; 24 pl. and ill. — 2/– c 8° Hazell — 91

A pop. yet scientific little bk. on discov. (by CHLADNI, who c. 100 yrs. ago was the 1st to show the intimate conn. betw. Sound and Form) and prodn. of the forms produced by the human voice; it offers, however, no explan. why, among all possible forms, the notes shd. wed themselves to some of the most familiar and beautiful forms of Nature (flowers, etc.). Author produces her results by causing elastic membrane to pulsate by means of human voice, the delicate vibrns. of wh. record and register themselves in several ways, and she has thus obtd. forms for the differ. notes of the scale, and shows that these forms vary w. substance used for producg. figs., w. quality of membrane and w. pitch, intensity etc. of vocal note. Qy. Magic or Science (or Delusion)?

14. OPTICS.

Generally.

BASSET, A. B. — A Treatise on Physical Optics — 16/– 8° Deighton, Camb. — 92

Conts. a good deal of matter not found in the usual text-bks.; but not a wholly satisfactory bk. for the student. Incl. numerous Camb. Tripos problems.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. — Light — [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/– Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. — 94

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. — The Theory of Light ; ill. — 12/6 ($3.25) ; adv. to 15/– ($5) 8° Macmillan — 90

An accurate and connected acc. and digest of the more import. opt. researches fr. earliest times tow. the foundation and extension of the wave-theory. Last chap. devoted to the recent brilliant experim. confirmation by Prf. HERTZ of CLERK-MAXWELL'S theory that electric and electro-magnetic disturbances are referable to intervention of the same all-pervading medium wh. forms the vehicle by wh. energy passes thro' space fr. one body to another, wh. brings light and heat fr. the sun, and to wh. we now look for a knowl. of the process by wh. one body is enabled to attract another, as well as for an explan. of the ultimate constitution of matter itself.

STEWART, Dr. R. W. — Text-Book of Light — [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 3/6 f 8° Clive — [90] 94

Popular Books.

JOHNSON, [Miss] Amy — Sunshine ; profusely ill. — 6/– ($1.75) c 8° Macmillan — 92

On the phenomena of light, treated experimentally in the simplest fashion for children. The first of a series to be called Nature's Story-books.

WOOD, Sir H. Trueman — Light ; 86 ill. — [Lib. of Pop. Science] c 8° 2/6 Whittaker / 75*c.* Macmillan, N.Y. — 91

Single Vision.

WYLD, Dr. Rob. S. — —in his The Physics and Philosophy of the Senses o.p. [pb. 16/– ; w. 7/6] 8° King (Paul) — 75

Propounds his theory of a single vision, anticipated (so far as priority of publn. was concerned, but arrived at by indep. experimts.) by Prf. H. HELMHOLTZ.

15. HEAT.

ALEXANDER, Peter — Treatise on Thermodynamics — [of very small value] 5/– c 8° Longman 92

CARNOT, M. F. S. — Reflections on the Motive Power of Heat and on Machines fitted to develop that Power [tr. fr. Fch.], ed. R. H. Thurston [Am,] ; port. — 12° $2 Wiley, N.Y. / 7/6 Macmillan, Lond. 90

A tr. of the remarkable Reflexions, to wh. is appended the celebrated paper by Sir Wm. THOMSON [now Ld. KELVIN], Account of Carnot's Theory, in wh. he first pointed out to the world the treasure so long concealed since first quarter of 19 cent.

GLAZEBROOK, R. T. — Heat — [Camb. Nat. Science Manls.] c 8° 3/– Camb. Press / $1 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

PARKER, J. — Elementary Thermodynamics — 9/– c 8° Camb. Press 91

*PRESTON, Prf. Thos. — The Theory of Heat — 17/– nt. ($5.50 nt.) 8° Macmillan 94

A comprehensive treatise, both experimental and theoretical, of great value, and of general interest—the whole subj. being throughout kept in view rather than (and sometimes at the expense of) the requiremts. of an exam. After a prelim. sketch, deals w. Thermometry, Dilatation, Calorimetry, Change of State, Radiation and Absorption, Conduction, and Thermodynamics.

STEWART, Dr. R. W. — Text-Book of Heat — [Univ. Corresp. Coll. Tutorial Ser.] 3/6 f 8° Clive 90

THURSTON, Prf. R. H. [Am.] Heat as a Form of Energy ; ill. — [Scientific Manuals] f 8° $1.25 Houghton, Boston / 5/– Heinemann 90

A somewhat slovenly and unscientific performance.

WRIGHT, Prc. Mark R. — Heat ; 136 ill. (mostly old) — [Advanced Science Manuals] 4/6 ($1.50) c 8° Longman 93

Conts. such informn. as is required for exam. in Advanced Stage of Heat of Science and Art Dept.

16. PURE ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM.

History.

MENDENHALL, T. C. [Am.] A Century of Electricity ; ill. — c 8° [Riverside Science Ser.] $1.25 Houghton, Bost. [87] 90 / [Nature Ser.] 4/6 Macmillan, Lond. 87

Generally.

ATKINSON, Dr. Pp. — Elements of Dynamic Electricity and Magnetism — 10/6 c 8° Lockwood 91

BOTTONE, S. R. — Electricity and Magnetism ; 102 ill. — [Libr. of Pop. Science] c 8° 3/6 Whittaker / 90c. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

A good popular introduction for the "general reader" or boy.

BURCH, Geo. J. — Manual of Electrical Science ; 39 ill. — [Univ. Extens. Manls.] 3/– c 8° Methuen 93

FARADAY, Mich. — Experimental Researches in Electricity, 3 vols. — 40/– nt. 8° Quaritch 39 ; 44 ; 55

A reissue (1893) of the original edn., from the stereotype plates, without alteration of dates on title-pages.

GILBERT, Wm. [of Colchester ; 1540–1603] On the Loadstone and Magnetic Bodies, and the Gt. Magnet the Earth, tr. P. F. Mottelay [Am.] — 8° $4 nt. Wiley, N.Y. / 17/6 nt. Quaritch 93

A tr. of GILBERT'S De Magnete, wh. first theorized that the earth is a great magnet, marking a definite stage in the evol. of phys. science. Short Memoir of GILBERT added.

*GRAY, Prf. Andr. — Theory and Practice of Absolute Measuremts. in Electr. and Magnetm.—ut I § 13.

GUILLEMIN, Amédée — Electricity and Magnetism [tr.] ; ed. Prf. Silv. P. Thompson ; 600 ill. 31/6 ($8) r 8° Macmillan 91

A popular, simple, non-mathematical exposition of the science of electricity, and the history of its evolution.

HEAVISIDE, Oliver — Electrical Papers, 2 vols. — 30/– nt. ($10) 8° Macmillan 92

An import. ser. of papers, by one of the leading expounders of MAXWELL'S electro-magnet. theories, a few dating fr. 1872–3, but most fr. 1882 sqq. Cover a very wide field : earliest devoted to mathem. calculns. conn. w. telegraphy ; then follow a system. treatise on rels. betw. magn. force and electric current ; discussn. on energy of electr. current (OHM'S law, thermo-electr. and contact electr.) ; inductions of currents in cores ; sketch of MAXWELL'S views (160 pp., ending vol. I.) ; specifm. of author's syst. of notation ; highly elabor. mathemat. investigns. rel. to electro-magn. waves ; propagn. of electro-magn. induction ; self-induction of wires ; forces, stresses and fluxes of energy, etc.

,, ,, — Electro-Magnetic Theory, vol. i. — [Electrician Series] 12/6 8° Electrician Office 94

JAMIESON, Andr. — Elementary Manual of Electricity and Magnetism — c 8° 3/6 Griffin 90 / $1.25 Lippincott, Phila. [90] 92

A clear and fresh little treatise, intended for first-year's students.

STEWART, R. W. — Textbook of Magnetism and Electricity — [Univ. Corr. Coll. Tut. Ser.] 5/6 c 8° Clive 94

*THOMPSON, Prf. Silv. P. — The Electro-Magnet & Elect.-mag. Mechanism — [Finsby. Techn. Manls.] 15/– 8° Spon 91

The Cantor Lectures 1890. An excellent bk., abounding in informn. of histor., scientific and practical value.

*THOMSON, Prf. J. J. — Notes on Recent Researches in Electr. and Magnetism — 8° 18/6 Clar. Press / 4.50 nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 93

An important and learned wk., intended as a sequel to Clerk-MAXWELL'S Treat. on Electr. and Magnetism—ut 16.16. H § 16.

WÜLLNER, Prf. Adolf. — Treatise on Electr. and Magnet., tr. and ed. G. W. de Tunzelmann, 2 v. ; ill. — 8° Longman in prep.

From the practical and experimental side, for students whose mathm. does not extend beyond an elem. knowl. of the calculns. Vol. i. deals w. Elem. Phenomena, Electrostatics, Permanent Magnetism, Electro-kinematics ; ii. w. Electro-magnetism and Magnetic Induction, Alternating Currents, Electric Radiation, and Electro-optics.

Collected Writings. Biography—v. also I § 16 (CROSSE, RONALDS).

v. SIEMENS, Dr. Werner — Scientific and Technical Papers [tr.], vol. i. ; port. and ill. — 14/– 8° Murray 92

A coln. of valuable papers, chiefly from the commercial side.

,, ,, — Personal Recollections, tr. Dr. W. C. Coupland — 8° 15/– Asher / $5 Appleton, N.Y. 93

Reminiscences of the elder brother of late Sir Wm. SIEMENS, who settled when a young man in Engl., and devoted himself to furtherance of its technical developmt. [for Dr. Wm. POLE'S Life of Sir Wm. Siemens v. 16.16. I § 2]. In spite of his advents. dur. Schleswig-Holstein war of 1848-49, obstacles overcome in construct. ing telegr.-lines in Russia, experiences in laying submarine cable, etc., the bk. is heavy and rather dull.

TESLA, Nikola.

Martin, Thos. C. [Am.] — The Inventions, Researches & Wrtgs. of Nikola Tesla; port. & ill. $1 — 8° Electrical Engineer Off., N. Y. 94

With special reference to his important wk. in Polyphase Currents and High-potential Lighting.

H § 17

Electro-Chemistry —v. I § 13.

Magnetic Induction in Metals.

EWING, Prf. J. A. Magnetic Induction in Iron and other Metals; 159 ill. [Electrician Ser.] 10/6 8° Electrician Office 92

An admirable bk., collecting all the matter scattered thro' journals etc. of Learned Socs., and contg. a full acc. of author's own researches: Methods of measuremt of magn. quality, Magn. Hysteresis, Influ. of Temperature, Magn. Circuit. Last chap. gives a complete acc. of the differ. theories of magnetism, w. author's own views, ending w. acc. of AMPÈRE'S hypothesis of magnetic molecules.

Mathematical Theory of Electricity and Magnetism.

EMTAGE, W. T. A. Introd. to Mathem. Theory of Electr. and Magnetism; diagrs. c 8° 7/6 Clar. Press / $1.90 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. [91] 94

An admirable summary of those applicns. of mathemcs. to electr. and magn. wh. are most important in mod. electr. wk. Much easier than Clerk-MAXWELL or MASCART+JOUBERT [ut 16.16. I § 16].

Measurements: Electric and Magnetic.

GRAY, Andr. Theory & Prac. of Absolute Measuremts. in Electr. & Magn. vol. ii.—ut I § 13. 93

Waves: Electric.

HERTZ, Prf. Heinr. Electric Waves, tr. Prf. D. E. Jones; pref. Ld. Kelvin; ill. 10/– nt. ($2.50 nt.) 8° Macmillan 94

Important researches on the propagation of electric action w. finite velocity thro' space.

Applications of Electricity—v. I § 13. to Medicine—v. H* § 13.

IV. Chemistry.

17. BIBLIOGRAPHY, HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, DICTIONARY OF CHEMISTRY.

Bibliography.

*BOLTON, Hy. Carrington [Am.] A Select Bibliography of Chemistry $3.50 8° Smithson. Inst., Washgtn. (Wesley) 93

Covers period 1492–1892, and incl. bks. in all languages, arrgd. alphab. under Authors' names [exc. in (4) and (7)], classif. into (1) Bibliogr., (2) Dictionaries, (3) History, (4) Biography, (5) Chemistry, [pure and appl.], (6) Alchemy [only the chief bks], (7) Periodicals. Invaluable.

Dictionary.

WATTS, Hy. [ed.] Dictionary of Chemistry, ed. Dr. H. Foster Morley+M. M. Pattison Muir, vol. iii.–iv. ea. 50/– ($16) r 8° Longman 92; 93

Vols. i.–ii. sell at 42/– ($14.50) each–2v. 16.16. H § 17. A vy. useful bk.; but scarcely neces. to students who have ROSCOE+SCHORLEMMER'S Treat. on Chem. [ut 16.16. H § 18].

Dictionary of Applied Chemistry—v. I § 53 (THORPE).

History.

*v. MEYER, Prf. Ern. History of Chemistry, tr. Dr. Geo. McGowan 14/– nt. ($4.50) 8° Macmillan 91

From orig. of chemistry in alchemy to present day, w. impartial biogr. and critical sketches of recent and contemp. chemists, and titles and dates of their most import. bks. and papers. The age of alchemy, and the iatro-chemical period, are more fully treated in Dr. Hein. KOPP'S Beitr. zur Gesch. d. Chemie [3 pts. 30*m.* 8° Vieweg, Brunswk. '69–75] and in his Die Alchemie in älterer u. neuerer Zeit [2 pts. 16*m.* 8° Winter, Heidelbg. '86]: but the period of the phlogiston theory fr. BOYLE to LAVOISIER—and espec. that fr. LAVOISIER to pres. time (DALTON, BERZELIUS, DAVY, LIEBIG, WÖHLER, DUMAS, etc.)—are excellently treated. Authors and Subj. Indexes.

MUIR, M. M. Pattison The Alchemical Essence and the Chemical Element 4/6 8° Longman 94

Sets forth the essential differences, while tracing the relations, betw. the alchemical and the chemical conception of the elements: duly appreciating the wk. of the alchemists in their pursuit of The One Thing.

PICTON, Har. W. The Story of Chemistry [Home Library] 3/6 c 8° Isbister 92

A popular sketch of rise and progress of chem., fr. ages of alchemy to pres. day, simply and pleasantly written. Not so learned as, but more comprehensive than, RODWELL'S Birth of Chemistry, ut 16.16. H § 17.

THORPE, Prf. T. E. Essays in Historical Chemistry 8/6 nt. ($2.25 nt.) c 8° Macmillan 94

Lects. and addresses deliv. during past 18–20 yrs., showing how the labours of some of the greatest chemists have contrib. to its developmt. Rob. BOYLE; Jos. PRIESTLEY; Carl. Wilh. SCHEELE; Hy. CAVENDISH; A.-L. LAVOISIER; PRIESTLEY, CAVENDISH, LAVOISIER and "La Revol. Chimique"; Mich. FARADAY, Thos. GRAHAM; Fried. WÖHLER; J. B. A. DUMAS, Herm. KOPP; Dmitri I. MENDELÉEFF, Prf. D. — Princ. of Chemis., tr. [fr. Russ.] G. Kamensky; ed. A. J. Greenaway, 2 v.; 97 ill. — 8° 36/- Longman 91 / $10 Van Nostrand, N. Y. 92

Two portly vols. of 1100 pp., the leading facts and theories bg. given in large type, whilst a long series of ample footnotes in small type (occupying perhaps ¾ the matter of the bk.) give fuller materials and more recondite discussions for the advanced student.

MEYER, Prf. Lothar — Outl. of Theoret. Chemis., tr. Prfs. P. P. Bedson+W. C. Williams — 9/- ($2.50) 8° Longman 92

A compendious digest, dealing w. most of the subj. treated in the older manuals under the general designation of Chemical Physics, tog. w. cognate matters wh. the progress of research has brought into prominence.

NERNST, Prf. — Theoretical Chemistry, tr. Prf. Chas. Skeele Palmer [Am.] — 8° Macmillan in prep.

OSTWALD, Prf. Wilh. — Outlines of General Chemistry, tr. Dr. Jas. Walker — 10/- nt. ($3.50) 8° " 91

Gives prominence to the exposition of the epoch-making theories of solution and electrolytic dissociation, due respectively to VAN 'T HOFF and ARRHENIUS.

" " Solutions, tr. M. M. Pattison Muir [tr. of bk. 4 of his Lehrb. d. allg. Chem.] 10/6 ($3) 8° Longman 91

Discusses the phenomena and laws of solution of gases in gases and liquids, of solution of liquids and of solids in liquids, of osmose, of diffusion, of the vapour-pressures and freezing-pts. of solutions, of salt-solutions, etc. A suggestive but rather one-sided bk., to be read w. caution by the uninitiated student.

SCOTT, Dr. Alex. — Introduction to Chemical Theory — c 8° 5/- Black / $1.25 Macmillan 91

An accurate little bk., treating of constit. of matter, atomic and molecular weights, classif. of elements of compounds, vapour densities and dissociation, phys. props. of compds., thermo-chem., chem. charge, solution, and electrolysis.

VAN 'T HOFF — Chemistry in Space, tr. J. E. Marsh; diagrs. — [Clar. Press Series] c 8° 4/6 Clar. Press / $1.10 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 91

A tr. of Dix Années dans l'Histoire d'une Théorie, giving a clear and full account of the theory of Solutions, founded by the author, and forming one of the latest and most brilliant developments of theoretic organic chemistry.

History.

BERRY, Arth. The History of Astronomy [Univ. Extens. Manuals] p 8° Murray / Scribner, N.Y. in prep.

Ancient : Egypt.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Dawn of Astronomy ; ill. 21/- 8° Cassell 94

A study of the temple-worship and mythol. of the anc. Egyptns., claiming to show that Egypt. temples were built so as to secure observns. of the sun and stars at certain times of yr., and seeking to determine the stars so used, to find the astron. ideas underlying the observns. and to trace some of the myths wh. arose out of them. With the exception of Prf. NISSEN, Prf. LOCKYER is the first to have suggested that the temples were oriented on an astronom. basis, a conclusion which —if generally accepted—will give a new complexion to the future study of Egyptology.

Biography.

Collectively.

LODGE, Prf. Oliver Pioneers of Science ; 120 ill. [pop. sketches in hist. of astron.] 7/6 ($2.50) c 8° Macmillan 92

A course of lects. on epoch-mkg. men (chiefly in astron.). 1st pt consists of lects. on men fr. Copernicus to Newton (esp. Tycho Brahe, Kepler, Galileo, Descartes); 2nd pt. of 9 lects. on Velocity of Light, Herschel and the Stars, Discoveries of Asteroids and of Neptune, Comets and Meteors, the Tides, etc., w. biogr. details and full scientific exposition, addressed to persons of literary education.

HOPKINS, B. J. Astronomy for Every-day Readers ; ill. c 8° 1/- Philip / 50c. Whittaker, N.Y. 93
By a self-educ. man, who at the age of 14 had formed a theory on comets, wh. Prf. STOKES thought worthy of a corresp. Born in 1862, Ld. LINDSAY gave him a telescope in 1877 : in 1882 he wrote on the great comet of that yr., and in 1883 he was elected a F.R.A.S. His bk. is readable and clear, explg. such celest. phenomena as shd. be known to every person (day and night, phases of moon, tides, seasons, eclipses, meteors, shooting stars, and comets). Descriptive astron. not touched on.

Origin of Cosmic Systems.

*LOCKYER, Prf. J. Norman The Meteoric Hypothesis of the Origin of Cosmical Systems ; ill. 17/- nt. ($5.25) 8° Macmillan 90
An attempt to reduce to one common denomination all the varied orders of bodies wh. the heavens present to the view—all, acc. to Mr. LOCKYER, alike composed of meteorites, the chief differences bg. due to either the degree of aggregation of the meteorites in the swarm, or, in the case of consolidated swarms, to the time elapsed since their complete evaporization. The evidences for the successive stages of cosmic evolution are found in a multitude of spectroscopic observations, here lucidly discussed and co-ordinated.

22. SOLAR SYSTEM.

Sun.

*BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Story of the Sun ; 8 col. pl. and ill. 21/– r 8° Cassell 94
Like Sir Rob. BALL'S other bks., a popular bk., in its best sense, giving a vivid picture of the nature of the great luminary. Its chief novelty is its applicn. of molecular physics to the explan. of the sustenance of the solar heat.

Geikie, Sir Arch. Life of Sir Andrew C. Ramsay in prep.

RAMSAY spent nearly all his life in service of the Geol. Surv. of U.K., so that the record of his life and the story of the Survey are coincident. This will be the 3rd Life of a member of the staff written by GEIKIE [v. 15.16. H § 70, Am. FORBES (in conj. w. Prof. Geo. WILSON), 15.16. H § 31, Sir. MURCHISON].

SEDGWICK, Prf. Adam [1785–1873].

Clark + Hughes, John Willis / Thos. McK. Life and Letters of the Rev. Adam Sedgwick, 2 vols.; ports. map and ill. c 8° 36/- Camb. Press / $9 net Macmillan, N.Y. 90

The geological portions contrib. by Prof. T. McKenny HUGHES, SEDGWICK'S successor in the Woodwardian chair, held by S. fr. 1818–73.

Treatises. Text-Books.

AVELING, Dr. Edw. B. Introd. to the Study of Geol.; col. map and 132 ill. [Introd. Sci. Textbks.] 6/– c 8° Sonnenschein 93

Specially adapted for use of candidates for Lond. B.Sc. and Science and Art Dept. exams.

*BONNEY, Prf. T. G. The Story of our Planet; 6 col. pl. and maps, and c. 100 ill. 31/6 8° Cassell 94

An excellent and comprehensive popular wk.; well got-up.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] Some Salient Points in the Science of the Earth; 46 ill. 7/6 c 8° Hodder 93

18 CHAPS. covering many important geol. subjects, summing up the veteran geologist's views, wh. remain as they have always been uncompromisingly and dogmatically anti-evolutionist. As a forcible ex-parte statemt. of the conclusions of the geologists of the older schs. the bk. has permanent value, and is very interesting reading.

GEIKIE, Prf. Archib. Class-book of Geology; ill. 4/6 ($1.10) c 8° Macmillan [86] 90

,, Prf. Jas. Fragmts. of Earth Lore: sketches & addr., geol. & geograph.; maps & ill. 12/6 8° Bartholomew, Edin. 93

Together form a more or less connected wk. on the origin of the present surface features of the world in general and of Scotld in particular. The author's well-known views on points without originality of suppositn. by argumt. many discussing some aspects of the question of earth movemts., wh. are obviously closely allied w. the theoret. explans. of Continental drainage. Most of the papers are controversial, and somewhat didactic in tone.

GWINNELL, Wintour F. Geology in Systematic Notes and Tables; map and 80 ill. 4/– 8° Allman [80] n.d. (89)

A useful bk. as a companion to a good text-bk., spec. suited for junior candidates for Sandhurst and Woolwich.

HUTCHINSON, Rev. H. N. The Autobiography of the Earth; 27 ill. c 8° 5/6 Stanford / $1.50 Appleton, N.Y. 91

A good popular account of geological history.

JUKES, Jos. Beete School Manual of Geology, ed. A. J. Jukes-Browne; ill. 3/6 f 8° Black [57] 93

JUKES-BROWNE, A. J. Geology: an elementary handbook; 94 ill. [Lib. of Popular Science] c 8° 4/- Whittaker / $1 Macmillan, N.Y. 93

A very good rudimentary descrn. of all branches of geology. Illns. only fair.

*KAYSER, Prf. E. Text-Book of Comparative Geology, tr. and ed. Pp. Lake; 596 ill. 8° 18/– Sonnenschein / $4.50 net Macmillan, N.Y. 93

The first bk. in Engl. lang. wh. affords much help for the compar. study of European geology. English edn. is much worked up in the English portions. Copiously and well ill.

LE CONTE, Dr. Jos. [Am.] The Elements of Geology: text-bk. for colleges and general readers; ill. $4 8° Appleton, N.Y. [78] 91

LYDEKKER, Rich. Phases of Animal Life, Past and Present; and Life and Rock [zoolog. and geol. essays]—ut H § 76.

ROBERTS, R. D. The Earth's Hist.: introd. to mod. geol.; col. maps & ill. [Univ. Extens. Manls.] c 8° 5/- Murray / $1.50 Scribner, N.Y. 93

Popular, but not elementary. tho' a non-geol. reader w. a minimum of scientific training will appreciate it.

SHALER, Prf. Nathl. S. [Am.] Nature and Man in America; well ill. $1.50 12° Scribner, N.Y.

A very readable bk. in 3 chaps., the first 2 of wh. give a good résumé of authors views on nature, orig. and permanence of continents, mountain-belts, changes of climate and phys. conditions in Cenozoic, etc.; the remainder gives a very interesting acc. of the pt. wh. the shape, climate and rocks of countries have played in governing the migrations of man, and in moulding his body and his mind.

,, ,, First Book in Geology; ill. 12° $1.12 Heath, Boston / 4/6 Isbister [84] 91

Practical (Field) Geology.

COLE, Prf. Grenv. A. J. Aids in Practical Geology; ill. 10/6 c 8° Griffin [91] 93

Very useful, packed w. information and thoroughly practical: has a section on palæontology.

Density of the Earth.

POYNTING, Prf. J. H. The Mean Density of the Earth; ill. and 7 folding pl. 12/6 l 8° Griffin 94

A good monograph; w. a bibliography. Adams Prize Essay (Cambridge, 1893.

Great Ice Age [when ice covered quite generally both the temperate and the tropical areas of earth].

BALL, Sir Rob. S. The Cause of an Ice Age [Modern Science] c 8° 3/6 Paul / $1 Appleton, N.Y. 92

An attractive and lucid popular bk., somewhat more controversial than expository, however. Finds the "cause" in astronomical facts, and puts the case most persuasively, but the "general reader" had better keep his mind still open.

DAWSON, Sir J. Wm. [Canad.] The Canadian Ice Age Dawson, Montreal / 24- Sonnenschein, Pt. Co. 94

Notes on the Pleistocene geol. of Canada, w. spec. ref. to life and climatical conditns. of the period.

,, ,, —in his Some Salient Points in Science of the Earth, ut supra.

GEIKIE, Prf. Jas. —in his Fragments of Earth Lore, ut supra.

Deals chiefly w. the history of Glacial times and the origin of surface features.

H § 32

HOWORTH, Sir Hy. H. The Glacial Nightmare and the Flood, 2 vols. 30/- 8° Low 93

"A Second Appeal to Common Sense fr. the Extravagance of some recent Geology," the first having been his Mammoth and the Flood [ut H.B. A § 131]. Begins w. acc. of the various theories put forw. to expl. drift phenomena (condensing a large body of liter.), proceeding to criticise the most extreme glacial views of recent times and to call in question the theory of uniformity as devel. by followers of LYELL and RAMSAY, and espec. to attack the notion that ice is capable of distributing materials over hundreds of miles of level countries and of producing many of the effects attrib. to it. A monumental and clever controversial bk. of great value as a cyclopædia of facts and arguments; but the schl. at wh. it is aimed is so small as to be scarcely worth such a large expenditure of powder and shot.

MANSON, Marsden Geological and Solar Climates: their causes and variations 2/- nt. 8° Dulau 93

After reviewing recent explans., goes back to the idea of the decrease in the orig. heating of the globe, and on that builds up a plausible theory.

WRIGHT, Prf. G. Fredk. [Am.] Man and the Glacial Period; maps and 111 ill. [Internat. Scient. Ser.] c 8° 5/- Paul / $1.75 Appleton, N. Y. 92

A readable but scarcely authoritative popular bk., dealing w. the broad question of man's entire relation to the glacial period in Europe and in America. The chief interest of the bk. centres in the chap. in wh. he discusses the evidence of man's existence dur. glacial period, espec. in N. Amer. Prf. HAYNES contribs. appendix on Tertiary Man.

Extinct Monsters.

HUTCHINSON, Rev. H. N. Extinct Monsters; 24 ill. 8° 12/- Chapman [92] 93 / $3 Appleton, N. Y. 92

A really valuable acc., clearly and simply written, of some of the larger forms of extinct animal life, based on the results of discovs. of MARSH, GAUDRY, COPE and FLOWER; w. a series of 24 restorations of antediluvian saurians and mammals drawn chiefly by J. SMIT, but for the most part from the restorations of skeletons made by Prf. MARSH. The dimensions of the restorations are however doubtful, to one type being given the maximum height to which the bones can be hoisted, to another the maximum length to which they can be extended.

DANA, Prf. Edw. S. [Am.] A System of Mineralogy; c. 1400 ill. i 8° $12.50 Wiley, N. Y. / 65/- Paul [37] 92

From the 6th ed. of his father's, Prf. J. Dwight DANA'S, Syst. of Mineral., the 1st edn. of wh. appeared in 1837, and the 5th in 1868 [ut H.B. H § 72]. The wk. is much enlarged (by ab. 300 pp.), and practically rewritten. First 55 pp. devoted to phys., chem., crystallogr. matter, remainder to descriptive mineralogy. Index and good Bibliography.

HATCH, Dr. F. H. Mineralogy; 115 ill. [Library of Mod. Science] c 8° 3/6 Whittaker / 90c. Macmillan, N. Y. 92

A good little treatise on the characters of minerals, their classifn. and descrn.; quite elementary and popular.

HUNT, Dr. T. Sterry [Am.] Systematic Mineralogy c 8° $5 Scient. Pb. Co., N. Y. / 25/- Gay & Bird 91

An attempt to establish a natural syst. of classifn. in wh. the nat. hist. and chem. methods are reconciled on a chemico-arithem. basis. Dividing the species of mineral kingdom into classes, orders and genera, author proposes a complete Latin nomenclature wh. for the species is binomial.

33. CRYSTALLOGRAPHY.

WILLIAMS, Prf. Geo. H. [Am.] Elements of Crystallography — c 8° $1.25 nt. Holt, N.Y. 6/- Macmillan, Lond. [90] 91

A concise statement of general principles, sufficient for elem. students of chemistry, physics and mineralogy. Conts. a bibliogr. of 38 bks. fr. 1784–1889 (3 Engl., 6 Fch., 29 Germ.).

Optical Characters of Crystals.

FLETCHER, L. [of Brit. Mus.] The Optical Indicatrix & Transmission of Light in Crystals; 21 ill. 7/6 nt. 8° Clar. Press 92

Rejects the mode of treatment used by FRESNEL in his famous memoir on double refraction (the recognised method of teaching the subject) and substitutes a new and original one. In a final chap. it is shown that FRESNEL'S wave-surface may be deduced fr. the general principles of undulations, without reference to the physical nature of the vibrations of the luminous ether.

ROMANES, Dr. G. J. An Examination of Weismannism; port. c 8° 6/- Longman / $1 Open Ct. Pb. Co., Chicago 93

A violent and somewhat unmannerly, tho' acute, attack on WEISMANN'S theories or rather such of them as he has modified and added to his orig. theories. [It does not touch his fundamental theory, viz. the assumption that only congenital characters are hereditarily transmitted and that acquired characters cannot be transmitted]. The bk. conts. a Statemt. of Weismann's Syst. up to 1886, His Additions up to 1892, His Theory of Heredity (1891), Exam. of his Theory of Evol. (1891), Weismannism up to date (1893) With Appendices (1) on Germ Plasm [espec. in so far as WEISMANN considers pangenesis a less conceivable and a more formal explan.], (2) on Telegony [practically consists of ROMANES' controversy w. Herb. SPENCER]. The best pt. of the bk. is his minute comparison of WEISMANN'S "Germ-plasm" w. GALTON'S "stirp."

Tr. and ed. E. B. POULTON+Dr. Selmar SCHÖNLAND+A. E. SHIPLEY. Probably the most important contrib. to speculative biology since The Origin of Species, wh., even if little of it ultimately becomes incorporated in the body of accepted knowledge, will at least play an important pt. in guiding and stimulating research along fruitful lines. Vol. i. of this 2nd edn. conts. all that appeared in the 1st edn. [ut B.B. ,, ,, The Germ Plasm: a theory of heredity, tr. Dr. W. N. Parker; 24 ill. c 8° 6/- Walter Scott / $2.50 Scribner, N.Y. 93

Conts. the first complete statemt. of WEISMANN'S theory of heredity—the opposite of DARWIN'S pangenesis, viz. that of the Continuity of Germ-plasm, assuming that no part of the parent organism generates any of the formulative material wh. is to constitute the new organism, but that on the contrary this material stands to the rest of the body in much the same rel. as parasite to host, that in each generation a small portion of this substance is told off to develop a new body and nourish the ever-growing and never-dying germ plasm, and that this formative material (or germ-plasm) has been continuous thro' all generations of successively perishing bodies.

Alternation of Generations.

ADLER, Dr. Herm. Alternating Generations, tr. and ed. Chas. R. Straton; ill. c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. 94

BUTLER, Sam. Life and Habit 7/6 c 8° Longman [77] 90

,, ,, Selections from Previous Works [ut B.B. H § 43, etc.] 7/6 c 8° ,, 90

Its main thesis is the general doctrine of the continuity of life—as a completion of the Darwinian theory. Its methods and results are somewhat similar to those of Ed. v. HARTMANN.

CALDERWOOD, Prf. Hy. Evolution and Man's Place in Nature 7/6 ($2) c 8° Macmillan 93

An interesting and suggestive attempt, fr. the pt. of view of a non-professional scientist, a Scottish Prf. of Moral Philos. (1) to explain the theory of evol. in its present highly devel. condn., and (2) to show the limits of its applicn., and to vindicate the rational and spiritual life of man as a Moral Agent. Accepts princ. of evol. as far as physical man is concerned, and is throughout "conciliatory," tho' contending for the indequacy of evol. to account for mental phenomena.

Pt. i. The Darwinian Theory, to be followed by a second Pt. Post-Darwinian Questions. The first Pt. forms a condensed and crit. systematic statemt. of the evidences of evol. as a fact, and of natural seln. (incl. sexual seln.) as a method, restricted to the Darwinian epoch (i.e. fr. pub. of Orig. of Species in 1859 to DARWIN'S d. in 1882), and intended to be a text-bk. of Darw. teaching as left by DARWIN, but incl. a good deal of the Darwinism of ROMANES himself. Pt. ii. is to treat in a similar spirit w. the decade fr. 1882 to 1892, its chief topics being heredity (incl. elabor. exam. of WEISMANN'S views—v. H § 42), utility, isolation, physiolog. seln., etc. Illns. mostly original.

STIRLING, Dr. J. Hutchinson Darwinianism : workmen and work 10/6 8° Clark, Edin. 93

An interesting acc. of the Workmen (Dr. Thos. BROWN, Dr. Erasm. DARWIN, Dr. Rob. Waring DARWIN, Chas. DARWIN, ea. psychol. characterized), and of their Work (an exam. of their writings, and a minute and system. criticism of theory of nat. selin., full of suggestion and often making points). The wk is virtually a developmt. of the concl. chaps. of author's Gifford Lects., Philos. and Theol. [ut A § 7]. While rejecting D's. theory, author admits that there is a true theory of evol., which is more "according to HEGEL."

GOODALE, Prf. Geo. L. [Am.] Physiological Botany ; ill. 8° $2.30 Ivison, N. Y. / 10/6 Macmillan 85
Forms the Second Pt. of Prf. Asa GRAY'S System. Textbk. of Boty., of wh. GRAY'S Struct. Boty. [ut 16.16. H § 49] forms the first Pt. Two more vols. [on Cryptogam. Boty. and on Nat. Orders of Phanerogams] are to appear. Present wk. deals w. veget. histology, organography and physiology of phanerogam. plants; and forms a very excellent intro. to subject: a bk. for the student in middle stage.

SCOTT, Dr. D. H. Introduction to Structural Botany: Flowering Plants ; 113 ill. c 8° 3/6 Black / $1 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 94
A fairly good bk., taking in succession a series of group-types [wall-flower for dicotyledons, white lily for monocotyl., spruce for gymnosperms], and examining briefly the structure and function of each; w. chap. on general physiol. of nutrition.

*VINES, Prf. Syd. H. Student's Text-Book of Botany, First Half; 279 ill. 8° 7/6 Sonnenschein / $2 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 94
More compreh. than the author's well-known edn. of PRANTL'S Elem. Textbk. [ut 16.16. H § 49], forming the best botanical textbk. in English: an original, worthy and up-to-date successor to SACHS [ut ib.].

Popular Manuals. Collective Essays.

BONAVIA, Dr. E. Philosophical Notes on Botanical Subjects ; 160 ill. 2/6 8° Eyre & Spottisw. 92
Chiefly repr. fr. the author's Diary. Deals in a more or less popular way w. subjects in plant morphol., variation, nat. seln., evolution, etc.

75. EMBRYOLOGY.

Collectively.

*Textbook of Embryology, ed. Dr. E. L. Mark [Am.]; ill. 8° Sonnenschein Macmillan, N. Y. 91 in prg.

Part i. : Man and Mammals, by Prf. O. HERTWIG [ut infra] ; Part ii. Invertebrates, by Drs. E. KORSCHELT+K. HEIDER, 3 pts. [ut infra].

Invertebrata.

*KORSCHELT+HEIDER, Dr. E. / Dr. K. Textbk. of Embryology: Invertebrates, tr. Dr. E. L. Mark [Am.]; ill. [in 3 pts.] 8° Sonnenschein Macmillan, N. Y. in prep.

To occupy 3 Parts, the first of wh. is announced to appear in summer of 1894. A highly important work, very full, and incl. the results of the latest research.

Vertebrata.

*HERTWIG, Prf. Oscar Textbk. of Embryology: Man and Mammals, tr. Dr. E. L. Mark; 2 col. pl. & 339 ill. 8° 21/- Sonnenschein $5.25 Macmillan, N. Y. 91

A clear and methodical exposition of the established facts, and a fair and adequate presentation of unsettled questions.

MINOT, Prf. C. Sedgwick [Am.] Human Embryology ; 463 ill. $8 8° Wood, N. Y. 92

Covers pretty much the same ground as HERTWIG, viz. the developmt. of the human body supplemented and illustrated by that of other animals; but WOOD'S summaries are much less numerous, complete and categorical.

Practical.

*MARSHALL, Prf. A. Milnes Vertebrate Embryology ; 225 ill. [woodcuts] 8° 21/- Smith & Elder $6 Putnam, N. Y. 93

An excellent practical treatise, designed for the senior University student in his laboratory wk., enabling him to gain a thorough knowl. of the successive appearances of the embryos of amphioxus, frog, chick, rabbit and man dur. developmt. fr. egg to adult form. Avoids theoretical questions almost entirely.

77. ANIMAL PSYCHOLOGY AND INTELLIGENCE.

HOUSSAY, F. The Industries of Animals ; 44 ill. [Contemp. Science Ser.] c 8° 3/6 Walter Scott / $1.25 Scribner, N.Y. 93
Describes animals' methods of hunting and fishing, their wars and expeditions, methods of defence, harvests and industries, provisns. for their young, defence and sanitation (!) of dwellings, etc. Sums up that degree of perfection is independent of zoolog. superiority, and that such glimpses as we can obtain of their habits "allow us to conclude that their psychic faculties are of the same nature as our own. Man in his evolution introduces no new factor."

MORGAN, Prf. C. Lloyd Animal Life and Intelligence ; 40 ill. and diagrs. 16/- 8° Arnold [90] 91
Papers on the nature of life, process of life, senses, mental processes in man, in animals, feelings of anim., reprod. and devel., variation in nat. selection, heredity, organic evol., mental evol. Interesting to the "general reader" and not without value to the specialist.

Epidemics.

*Creighton, Dr. Chas. History of Epidemics in Britain — 8° — 18/- Camb. Press / $4.50 Macmillan, N. Y. — 92

Written fr. pt.-of-view of an anti-vaccinationist and adversary of germ-theory of disease, seeking to demonstr. that all epidemics advance to a maximum period of severity, and thence decline till extinct, and that therefore the diminutn. of small-pox is due to general causes acting on all diseases and not to vaccin. Apart fr. this bias, it is the first serious Engl. attempt at a system. study of epidemics, tracing them to their source, giving a scientific acc. of them, and weaving causes, appearance and consequences into a connected history : a wk. of much research, commencing w. yr. 664, and dealing w. pestilences prev. to Black Death (chiefly fr. famines), Leprosy in mediæv. Brit., Black Death (1348-9), Sweating Sickness (1485-1551), Plague, Gaol Fevers etc. in Tudor per., French Pox, Smallpox and Measles, and so on, ending w. Plague of 1666.

*PARRY, Dr. C. H. H. The Art of Music 8° 12/– Paul / $4 Appleton, N.Y. 93

A very excellent work, pract. a hist. of the evoln. of music fr. its dim beginnings among primitive nations to the highest developmts. of modern times—evidencing wide knowl. of the facts of all periods and stating them lucidly and logically.

*RIEMANN, Dr. H. Catechism of Musical History, 2 pts. ea. 2/6 nt. c 8° Augener 91 ; 92

An excellent work, thorough and accurate, and very full of research. Pt. i., chaps. 1–4, deals w. Hist. of Mus. Instruments, anc. and mod., and a full and clear exposition of the tone-system of the Gks. is given, followed by the author's explan. of the evol. of the Western tone-syst. fr. it, together w. acc. of the intermediate Byzantine stage, and the evol. of pres. notation fr. early times. Pt. ii. treats the Hist. of Musical Form, w. biogr. notices of composers.

HAUPTMANN, Moritz.

Letters of a Leipzig Cantor, ed. Prf. Alf. Schöne+Ferd. Hiller, tr. A. D. Coleridge, 2 vols. 21/- 8° Novello 92
Mostly written to Franz HAUSER, a singer and director of the Munich conservatorium, w. others to Otto JAHN, SPOHR, Jul. RIETZ, etc. Many are quite trivial and had been better omitted, but the bk. as a whole is interesting, as it covers the period in wh. the modern romantic schl. gradually, but surely, forced its way thro' the trammels of the classicists : but the letters bear few traces of the learned theorists who wrote Die Natur d. Harmonie u. Metrik [for tr. v. B.B. I § 125] or the Erlauterung zu der Kunst der Fuge von J. S. Bach.

BETTERTON, Thos. [1635–1710].

Lowe, Rob. W. — Thomas Betterton — [Eminent Actors] c 8° 2/6 Paul / $1 Longman, N.Y. — 91

A good little wk., forming an excellent guide to the comprehension of the Restoration stage.

BLANCHARD, Edw. Laman [1820–1889 ; dramatic critic and dramatist].

Scott + Howard, Clement / Cecil — Life of Ed. Blanchard, w. notes fr. Diary of W. Blanchard [father], 2 vols. ; — ports. and ill. — 32/– 8° Hutchinson 91

Does full justice to his manly and industrious career, and affords a record (somewhat fragmentary) of theatrical affairs and persons of the period 1844–89.

BROOKE, Gustavus Vaughan [1818–1866 ; tragedian].

Lawrence, W. J. — The Life of Gustavus Vaughan Brooke ; port. — 21/– r 8° Blaird, Belfast 92

Trustworthy and well written ; but the life was uneventful and ordinary. Only 500 prin.

COATES, Rob. [1772–1848].

Robinson, Jno. R. / Hunter H. — The Life of Robert Coates ; 2 ports. — c 8° 7/6 Low / $3 Scribner, N.Y. — 81

An interesting life of an absurd W. Indian colonist, who flourished as a Bath beau while GEORGE iii. was king, and who died in the poverty he richly merited. In the Dict. of Natl. Biogr. he ranks as an "actor," tho' his performances, chiefly as an amateur, scarcely warrant this dignity. Amongst his nicknames were "Diamond Coates," "Romeo Coates," "Cock-a-doodle-doo Coates"—the last owing to his motto, "Whilst I live I'll crow," wh. appeared w. a brazen cock on his kettledrum-carriage drawn by white horses.

GARRICK, Dav. [1716–1769].

Knight, Jos. — David Garrick : a biography ; port after Boucher — [L.P. 21/– nt.] 10/6 nt. 8° Paul 94

Vincent, W. T. — Recollections of Fred. Leslie; Introd. Clement Scott, 2 vols.; ill. — 30/- — 8° — Paul — 93

MACKLIN, Chas. [1690(?)–1797].

Parry, Edw. A. — Charles Macklin — [Eminent Actors Series] — c 8° — 2/6 Paul / $1 Longman, N.Y. — 91

PHILLIPS, Watts.

Phillips, E. Watts — Memoir of Watts Phillips, Artist and Playwright; port and ill. — 10/6 — 8° — Cassell — 92

A life of the author of The Dead Heart, recently revived by IRVING.

ROBERTSON, T. W.

Pemberton, Thos. Edgar — Life and Writings of T. W. Robertson; port., facs., and ill. — 14/- — 8° — Bentley — 93

A good acc. of the varied career of the author of Caste, School, etc.: rather weak in criticism.

SIDDONS, Mrs. Sarah [1755–1831].

Boaden, Jas. — Memoirs of Mrs. Siddons; ports. — 7/6 nt. — c 8° — Gibbings — [32] — 93

L.P. (150 copies) w. 25/-. A standard but jejune biography.

Italian.

Individually.

SALVINI, Tommaso — Leaves from his Autobiography; pl. and ill. — 8° — 6/- Unwin / $1.50 Century Co., N.Y. — 93

A soln. fr. the mass of non-Engl. phrases wh. are used in Engl. writing and speaking of a consid. no. that have a "distinctly literary flavour." A fairly good bk., but rather superficial. Curiously eno,' it does not contain a single Spanish proverb, tho' Spain is the home of the best proverbs.

DALBIAC, Maj. Pp. H. [ed.] Dictionary of Quotations, Prose and Verse Sonnenschein in prep.

Limited to British authors, but within its scope on a more extensive scale than any other similar wk. Full references for every quotation, epigram, etc., a spec. feature of the bk. bg. its coiln. of parallel passages traced thro' their respective authors to their earliest "sources" or employmt.

WOOD, Rev. Jas. [ed.] Dictionary of Quotations 7/6 ($2.50) 8° Warne [93] 93

A compreh. and laborious compilatn. of some 30,000 quotatns., alphab. arranged, w. Index. No exact references to sources are given, wh. largely detracts fr. its otherwise considerable value.

Privately-Illustrated Books (Grangerism).

TREDWELL, Dan. M. [Am.] — Monograph on Privately Illustrated Books — [c. 500 pp.] $5 — 8° Long Island [82] 92

A very tastefully printed bk. (De Vinne Press, N.Y.), but full of blunders, inaccuracies and literary bêtises, showing that Grangerism (wh. still flourishes in U.S.—Mr. T. says there are 500 "illustrators" in N.Y.) may co-exist w. dense ignorance. It is the bk. of an "amateur dealer," redolent of crushed morocco and dollars, rather than of a bk.-lover; and intended no doubt to be extra-ill. itself. It introduces many anecdotes of notables; but if 99 bks. are to be ruined for the sake of turning one into a picture-gallery, a better excuse than this bk. can readily be found.

CASTELLANI, Prf. Carlo — L'Origine Tedesca e l'Orig. Olandese dell' Invenz. della Stampa — 8° Ongania, Venice — 90

A pamphlet by the prefect of St. Mark's Lib. in Venice. Gives the evidence in favour of the Germ. and Dutch claims in a lucid and uncontroversial style, clearly showing the consensus of antiquity in favour of Maintz: far more convincing than Dr. HESSELS' aggressive claims for Holland, tho' the two shd. be read as mutually complementary—and perhaps corrective.

VAN DER LINDE, Dr. A. — The Haarlem or Coster Legend of Invention of Printing, tr. J. H. Hessels — 5/- m 8° Blades — 71

With an introduction and a classified list of Costerian incunabula. A serious attack on the so-called historical evidence on wh. the Costerian claims are founded.

A careful pioneer essay on a very partially explored field, of consid. importance in hist. of origins of Eng. drama. SENECA was a popular writer with the men of the Renaiss., the whole theory of the Unities, agst. which the Romantic drama had to strive so hard, having been directly or indirectly derived from him. Commences w. acc. of the 16 cent. tr. of SENECA, and conts. in an Appendix a list of 25 direct quotns. fr. SENECA in var. Elizab. plays, and in another an anal. of the numerous Senecan passages in The Misfortunes of Arthur.

Essays on Chaucer's life, of the legends wh. have grown up round it, of his editors and critics and of the poems; they have wrongfully fathered upon him, of the vicissitudes of his literary reputation, of the bks. read and of his religion (or scepticism). An extraordinary mass of information (some 1600 pp.!), new and old; diffuse and rather in the style of magazine articles, but still very valuable. The story of the var. edns. of Chaucer's text has never before been told so well, and in the hist. of his reputation Prf. Lounsbury breaks new ground. *Aitken, Geo. A. — The Life and Works of John Arbuthnot, M.D.; port. — 8° — 16/- Clar. Press / $4 Macmillan, N.Y. — 92

A thoroughly interesting and painstaking life of the kindly humorist, scholar and man of science, physician to Qn. ANNE and friend of SWIFT and POPE—ab. whom every member of the irritabile genus had a good word to say in an age when bitter personalities were more in fashion than panegyric.

BOSWELL, Jas. [1740–1795].

Fitzgerald, Percy — Life of James Boswell (of Auchinleck): w. acc. of his sayings, doings & writgs., 2 vols. — 8° — 24/- Chatto / $7 Appleton, N.Y. — 91

A cumbrous and slipshod work, but (as could not well have been avoided) of considerable interest. Beyond some letters of Boswell to Wilkes, conts. little information that is not better given in Dr. Rogers' memoir [ut 36.36, K § 24] and the chap. entitled "Boswell Self-Revealed" is not likely to supplant Macaulay's caricature-portrait of Boswell [in his Essays=review of Croker's ed. of Boswell's Johnson (ut ib.)] wherein he finds an opportunity "to dust the varlet's jacket" or avenge himself on a polit. foe.

HAZLITT, Wm. [1778–1830] Liber Amoris, or the New Pygmalion, w. Intro. Rich. Le Gallienne 5/- nt. f 8° Mathews & Lane [23] 93

L.P. (50) 12/6 nt. Only once previously reprinted. A pretty edn. of a curious bk., the author's acc. of his own passion for his lodging-house keeper's daughter, a hopeless coquette, whom he eventually married and, by mutual consent, afterw. divorced. A study in pathology, rather than biography.

HOUGHTON, 1st Lord [Rich. Monckton MILNES; 1809–85].

Reid, T. Wemyss Life, Letters & Friendships of Rich. Monckton Milnes, 1st Ld. Houghton, 2 vols.; 2 ports. 32/- ($5) 8° Cassell 90

An interesting memoir of a man who for half a century occupied a conspicuous position in society—in the widest and best sense—not only in England, but throughout Europe.

HUNT, J. H. Leigh [1784–1859].

KEATS, Jno. [1796–1821] Letters to his Family & Friends, ed. Prf. Sidney Colvin 6/-; red. to 5/- ($1.50) c 8° Macmillan 91

Omits all the poet's love-letters to Fanny BRAWNE. The true text of the American and miscell. letters here given consecutively and in proper order for the first time. KEATS does not shine as a letter-writer: his letters are garrulous, trivial, gushing—unrelieved by grace of style. Vide also the Life of Joseph Severn, ut I § 92 (wh. however conts. but little new as to Keats).

Watson, Wm. The Punishment of Genius—in his Excursions in Criticism, ut K § 18.

A delightful autobiography.

MORLEY, Prf. Hy. [1822–94] Early Papers and Some Memories 5/- c 8° Routledge 91

Conts. 20 odd pp. of autobiography, w. remin. of medical (MORLEY began life as a doctor) and literary life, chfly. repr. fr. periodicals, The Examiner, Household Words, etc.

MURRAY, Dav. Christie [1847; living] The Making of a Novelist; port. 6/- c 8° Chatto 94

A series of vivid autobiogr. sketches by the novelist, who has been a journalist, dramatist, actor, soldier, penniless man-of-letters—and amateur tramp.

OLIPHANT, Laurence [1829–1888].

Leisching, Louis Personal Reminiscences of Laurence Oliphant 6*d.* 8° Marshall Bros. 91

The author's name is frequently mentioned in Mrs. OLIPHANT'S Life, ut inf. His pamphlet supplies some supplem. matter of interest, but (fr. pt.-of-view of Brit. Evangelicism) regards Oliphant's life as "a lost one, save as a beacon to warn others."

*Oliphant, Mrs. [Marg.] Memoir of the Life of Laur. Oliphant and of Alice his Wife; ports. 7/6 n 8° Blackwood [91] 92 / 2 v. $7 Harper, N.Y. 91

A sympathetic and very interesting life of the man, by his distant kinswoman and namesake, who, however, has no knowl. of, and quite fails to appreciate some of the main influences and condns. of his life. Its chief value therefore is as a skilfully-written chronicle of the romantic and adventurous incidents of his varied life.

K § 24

Smith, Haskett — For God and Humanity, 3 vols. — 25/6 p 8° Blackwood 91

A novel by a clergyman who embraced Oliphant's faith and became a member of the Haifa community. Its object is mainly biographical; its scenes laid chiefly in Palestine, at Haifa or in the Druse village of Dulieh. Oliphant's [=Cyril Gordon] views elucidated in course of the plot, wh. in itself is clumsy and amateurish.

PATER, Walt. [1839–1894] The Child in the House — [only 250 reprinted] Daniel's Priv. Press, Oxfd. [78] 90

Conts. remins. of his early yrs., and deals partic. w. his first impressions of death—"the fear of death intensified by the desire of beauty." Author had intended to have reissued it as a second ser. of his Imaginary Portraits [ut B.B. I § 90]. A colln of PATER'S letters is also in contemplation.

This is the journal wh. SCOTT began to keep in 1825, and in wh. he made entries, w. few intermissions, till 5 mos. before his death in 1832. LOCKHART in his Life of Scott [ut B.B. K § 24] abgd. and sometimes altered the passages wh. he quoted; the new matter here is nearly as valuable as that wh. LOCKHART pubd., and is of great interest.

*Familar Letters, ed. Dav. Douglas, 2 vols.; w. copious notes — 8° 32/– Douglas, Edin. 93; $6 Houghton, Bost. 94

These letters are confined solely to those written to SCOTT'S family and intimate friends—MORRITT, RICHARDSON, Stewart ROSE, Miss SMITH, Joanna BAILLIE [of spec. interest], Lady ABERCORN and others, and range fr. 1797 to end of 1825, when the Journal begins. They are nearly all previously unpublished, and of great interest, full of "careless, inimitable beauties."

DE VOLTAIRE, F. Arouet [1694–1778].

Ballantyne, Arch. Voltaire's Visit to England : 1726–1729 8/6 c 8° Smith & Elder 93

A useful essay on what VOLTAIRE said was the most important incident in his life. CARLYLE'S acc. of wh. is full of mistakes. Author was charged by J. Churton COLLINS [Athenæum, Nov., '93] w. having "appropriated almost all my matter—transcribed . . . my references, . . . adopted my conclusions," etc., charges rebutted and confuted [in same journal] by BALLANTYNE, who stated that the "MS. was entirely written, exactly as it is now printed, before I even knew that Mr. COLLINS had treated the subj. at all": a curious instance of the same literary materials yielding identically similar results.

Collins, J. Churton Voltaire in England—in his Bolingbroke [1886], ut B.B. F § 24.

Espinasse, Fcs. Voltaire [Great Writers] 1/6 16° Walter Scott 93

An excellent, impartial little bk., the fruit of long and assiduous study of the many-sided French philosopher. Something more than an abridgmt. of the author's Life of Voltaire, vol. i. (8° Chapman '66), of wh. the 2nd and 3rd vols. have not appeared yet ; and quite up to date and accurate. Good use is made of Gust. DESNOIRESTERRE'S Voltaire et la Société au dix-huit. Siècle, 8 vols., and the collns. of his letters that have come to light since 1860.

Both the above "books in the nude" have been very largely read. As contribs. to literature or biography they are quite valueless, but they cont. a curious self-portraitnre of a vain, egotistical and morbid Russian girl [resident in Paris], craving for notoriety—a piteous "human document." The second wk. has an Intro. by François COPPÉE.

General History.

SCHWEITZER, Ph. Geschichte der skandinavischen Literatur, vol. i. 4*m.*, ii. 5*m.*, iii. [last] 6*m.* 8° Friedrich, Leipzig 85; 88; 89

The best, but by no means an ideal, history of Scandinavian literature. i. Old-Scand. liter. to Reformn.; ii. Reformn. to Scand. Renaissce. (=18 cent.); iii. Nineteenth Cent.

Biography. Criticism.

ANDERSEN, Hans Christ. [1805–] Corresp. w. Grand Duke of Saxe-Weimar, etc., ed. Fred. Crauford; ports. and memoir 6/– p 8° Dean 91

A seln. fr. the Danish edn., wh. comprizes over 800 letters, and is pub. in 3 bulky vols. Disappointing: the letters are stiff and stilted, tho' they show, what was so clear in his life, that their writer remained as simple as a child to the end of his days.

IBSEN, Henrik [1828; living].

Boyesen, H. H. [Am.] Commentary on the works of Ibsen 8° 7/6 nt. Heinemann / $2 Macmillan, N. Y. 94

Deals w. all IBSEN'S wks., narrating their stories, and criticizing them fr. their æsthetic and moral sides. Suggestive, but not luminous.

Jaeger, Henrik The Life of Henrik Ibsen, tr. Clara Bell [the verse selns. tr. Edm. Gosse] 6/– c 8° Heinemann 91

Shaw, G. Bernard The Quintessence of Ibsenism c 8° 2/6 Walter Scott / 25c. Tucker, Boston 91

The author, a humorist thinly disguised as a social philosopher, here seeks to show that a new social theory (wh. he expounds at length) is implicit in IBSEN'S dramas. The bk. would perhaps more correctly be entitled "The Quintessence of Shawism" (or Fabian-Socialism).

DE CERVANTES SAAVEDRA, Miguel [1547–1616].

*Kelly, Jas. Fitzmaurice Life of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra 16/– 8° Chapman 92

A learned biographical, liter. and histor. study, rather too "special" for the general reader, but of great value to the student (assumes a knowl. of Gk., Lat., Fch. and Span.), partly on acc. of its numerous digressions [incl. essays on Pastoral Poetry, on the Influ. of Ital. writers on Span. (and Engl., espec. Elizab.) drama and poetry]. A very excellent bibliogr. fr. 1585 to 1892 is added, and an Appendix on the Canto de Caliope.

L.P. (60) w. 15/–. A faithful reprint of the scarce Elizabethan tr. by DAY of AMYOT'S version of LONGUS. With literary intro. and bibliogr. Only one copy is known to exist of the original of this tr., where "Roman Hellas, Renaissance France and Elizabethan England meet in one volume."

" Daphnis & Chloe, tr. Geo. Thornley [1657] c. 40 ill. C. Ricketts & C. Shannon 42/– nt. s 4° Mathews & Lane 93

Only 210 copies printed. The illns., tho' fine in their way, seek to emulate the early Italian manner, but both Daphnis and Chloe appear as late-nineteenth cent. "æsthetic" damsels, lank and cadaverous, with none of the Arcadian beauty of the early Ital. designs. THORNLEY'S tr. is very quaint and charming : preferable to AMYOT'S.

RHYS, Prf. Jno. Studies in the Arthurian Legend 8° 12/6 Clar. Press / $2.25 Macmillan, N.Y. 91

A learned wk., full of research and suggestion, somewhat fantastically conjectural. The author's view is that there was both an historic Arthur and a Brythonic divinity of the same name, and that the group of legends wh. surround that name is of purely Welsh origin, hg. been carried into France by Welsh fabliaux or singers (endorsing Gaston PARIS but pace Prf. FOERSTER and Prf. ZIMMER). The reasoning is mainly philological throughout. The bk. is in some sense a continuation of the author's Hibbert Lects. [ut B.B. A § 14], its chief object bg. to make Welsh liter. help to shed a light on the mass of legends conn. w. the name of Arthur. Of wide interest, for in all Engl. liter., fr. Spenser and Shaksp. to Swinburne and Tennyson, this legend has been the most pregnant in poetry, music and art. Vide also B § 15.

Disregarding BROOKE [ut 16.16. K § 50] and MATURIN [ut sup.] Miss EDGEWORTH was the first Irish novelist who "counts." Her novels [first collected, 14 vols. f 8° Lond. '25], well worth reissuing in a uniform ed., depict in a wonderfully graphic manner the irresponsible, free-living Irish gentry of their day, out-at-elbows, gay, tawdry and feasting whilst one famine after another swept thro' the land. ,, ,, Astrophel and Stella and Defense of Poesie, ed. Dr. E. Flügel ; w. Germ. intro. and notes 6*m.* 8° Niemeyer, Halle 89

Until ARBER'S edn. of 1868 [ut B.B. K § 62] the wk. was always known as the Defence of Poesy, and ARBER'S theory that Hy. OLNEY'S edn. of 1595 (wh. he had discovered and fr. wh. his edn. is printed) was the editio princeps has been clearly proved to be wrong. Wm. PONSONBY having on 29 Nov. 1594 entered at Stat. Hall "a book entituled A Treatise in Commendation of Poetrie or the Defense of Poesy, written by Sir Phillip Sidney." OLNEY'S entry was on 12 Apl. 1595 for "a booke entitled An Apologie for Poetrie," and to it is appended "This belongeth to Master Ponsonby by a former entrance, and an agreement is made between them whereby Master Ponsonby is to enjoy the copie [=copyright] according to the former entrance." COOK modernizes the spelling, SHUCKBURGH retains the old and repeats all printer's errors etc. In each edn. the intros. and notes (of ab. equal value) occupy twice as much space as the text.

Sidney's sister, for whom the Arcadia was written) ; MASSINGER, Wm. BROWNE, Ben JONSON, Geo. WITHER, Isaac WALTON (for whom he wrote a song that appears in The Compleat Angler). He is at present best known for his fine epitaph on SHAKSPERE. His Pastorals, here 1st printed but prepared for pub. in 1653, is his chief wk., tho' all his verse is pleasing and healthy, if somewhat insipid and uninspired.

A careful and excellent edn. of a little-read but nevertheless powerful poet, who will survive for students, not for readers, of English belles lettres. The most import. completed wk., Death's Jest Book [1850], is nominally a drama in 5 acts, and all the rest of his wk., exc. a few lyrics and occas. poems, is also nominally dramatic ; but there never was anything less dramat. in substance than his admirable poetry in dialogue. His chief characteristic is his morbidity : there is scarcely a page without its sad, grotesque, gay or abhorrent imagery of the tomb. The Intro. gives for the 1st time the real story of BEDDOES' suicide.

MAETERLINCK, Maurice [c. 1863; living].

The Princess Maleine, and The Intruder, tr. Gerard Harry [v. badly]; w. intro. [T.] Hall Caine 5/– c 8° Heinemann 92

On the appearance of La Princesse Maleine in 1890 (Brussels), the author, hitherto known only to a small circle of amateurs, at once sprang into fame on the continent, owing chiefly to a flaming art. by Octave MIRBEAU in Le Figaro [Aug. 24th, 1890], wherein this wk. was estimated as "comparable—et oserai-je le dire?—supérieure en beauté à ce qu'il y a de plus beau dans Shakespeare." Wm. ARCHER'S art. in The Fortnightly Rev. [a Pessimist Playwright; Sept., 1890] first introduced the "Belgian Shakspere" to Englishmen; but his estimate is much less enthusiastic than MIRBEAU'S. Beerbohm TREE put an adapted version of The Intruder on the Haymarket stage [Matinée, Jan. 27th, 1892], but it showed small capabilities of acting well. As a brooding poet, a mystic, and a contemplative spectator of the comedy of death, whose wk. is couched, almost by a sort of accident, in dramatic form, MAETERLINCK will probably find a place in literature. His best wk. is no doubt Les Aveugles.

The edr's. biogr. sketch seeks to "do justice to HUNT as a man": at any rate it annihilates the charge that DICKENS' sketch of him in Horace Skimpole [Bleak House] was a justifiable and true sketch, and shows that in his relations w. BYRON he was the injured party rather than the base ingrate BYRON'S biographers have sought to show him to have been. The selns. are good, esp. the verse ones. Good bibliogr.

v. GOETHE, Joh. Wolfg. [1749–1832] Maxims and Reflections, tr. T. Bailey Saunders [Eversley Ser.] 5/- ($1.25) c 8° Macmillan 93

A tr. of the greater pt. of the Sprüche in Prosa, a series of aphorisms and maxims on life and character, philos. liter., science and art, some of wh. orig. appeared in Die Wahlverwandtschaften [1809], some in Kunst u. Alterthum [1816-28], others in the 1829 ed. of Wilh. Meister, and others not pub. till after his death : i.e., all in his later period. They contain very "good things," and form a very companionable volume. Particularly well and lucidly tr.

" " Nature-Aphorisms of Goethe, tr. T. Bailey Saunders — [pp. 15] c 8° Macmillan 93

First appeared in 1783, in his Journal des Tiefurt, a MS. magazine priv. circulated in the Court of Weimar. Reported by G. Chr. TOBLER. They were inspired by GOETHE, then in his 34th year.

GRACIAN, Baltasar [–1658] The Art of Worldly Wisdom, tr. Jos. Jacobs ; w. Intro. and notes — [Gold. Treas. Ser.] 2/6 nt. ($1) f 8° Macmillan 92

A spirited, but not invariably accurate, tr. of the Oráculo Manual, a ser. of "ethical" maxims, subtle, keen, and largely un-moral, by a Span. Jesuit scholar and man of the world. They were greatly esteemed in Spain down to beg. of Fch. Revol., and trs. appeared in Engl., Fch., Germ., Ital., Polish, Hung., and Latin, since which time it has fallen out of repute in all countries exc. Germy., where several trs. have been made dur. present cent., notably that by Arth. SCHOPENHAUER, posthum. ed. J. FRAUENSTADT sub tit. "Hand-Orakel u. Kunst d. Weltklugheit," 2*m.* 12° Brockhaus, Lpz. (1861) 90. JACOBS, in his Introd. draws a good distinctn. betw. the Aphorism and the Maxim : "Many men have sought to give their views about man and about life in a pithy way ; a few have tried to advise men in short sentences what to do in the various emergencies of life. The former have written aphorisms, the latter maxims. When the aphorism states a fact of human nature, a maxim advises a certain course of action. The aphorism is written in the indicative, the maxim in the imperative, mood."

Fiction.

CRAWFORD, F. Marion The Novel: what it is; port. 3/– (75*c.*) 18° Macmillan 93

A disappointing paper (108 very empty pp.) by the gifted novelist, whose answer to his own inquiry begs the whole question: "A novel is (or ought to be) a pocket theatre. Judge it by the same tests that you would apply to a play; insist that the illusion shall be perfect: and you will not be far wrong. As to the controversy between the realistic and romantic schools, why should a good novel not combine romance and reality in just proportions?"

PITMAN, [Sir] Is. — A History of Shorthand — [repr. fr. Phonetic Journal, 1884] 2/– c 8° Pitman [84] 91

A very one-sided performance, ignoring the mere existence of many other excellent recent (and rival) systems wh. are doing good work in Parliament, the Law Courts and among pressmen. Much space is given to demolishing defunct and worthless systems. Pitman's is still no doubt the best, however; but not the only good one.

Ausgrabungen zu Sendschirli [N. Syria], pt. i. — [Mittheiln. a. d. Orient. Samml. Berl.] 25*m.* f° Spemann, Berlin 93 in prg.

Contribns. by Dr. von LUSCHAN, the director of the expedns., Prf. SCHRADER, Prf. SACHAU. The lang. of the inscripp. has been the subj. of discussn., and seems to be a mixture of Aramaic and Hebr.

CAMPBELL, Prf. Jno. [Canad.] The Hittites: their inscriptions and their history, 2 vols.; pl. — 21/– nt. 8° Nimmo 91

Acc. to author, Hittite civilization has been ubiquitous. He surveys mankind "fr. China to Peru," and finds traces of it everywhere.

CONDER, Cpt. [Maj.] C. R. Altaic Hieroglyphs: a memoir, w. tr. of all known Hittite inscrs.; ill. — 5/– c 8° A. P. Watt 87

Seeks to show that the symbols are the prototypes whence the Cuneiform system has developed; that they have possibly a common origin w. the hieroglyphic syst. of Egypt; and that perhaps even the Chinese characters may have also developed fr. the original Altaic picture-writing. Author has also a wk. on the Tell el-Amarna tablets in prep. for Pal. Expl. Fd., in which he deals w. their importance for reconstructing the hist. and condition of Pal. in 14 cent. B.C. He believes that the Abiri referred to in them were the Hebrews. To cont. maps and 2 pl. of the Lachish inscription.

DE LANTSHEERE, Léon — De la Race et de la Langue des Hittites — 8° Goemaere, Brussels 92

A clear and compreh. acc. of all that was known or conjectured up to 1892; well arrgd. and w. careful refs. to authorities. The arguments seeking to shew that the authors of the Hittite monumts. were the Hittites of the O.T., and of the Egypt., Assyr., and Vannic inscripp., are set forth w. great lucidity. The series, as far as pub., forms a valuable, if not indispensable, storehouse of Assyr. and Babyl. texts in transcriptions, w. trs. and in some cases notes. It is the latest wk. of the founder of Assyriology in Germy., who ab. 1870 commenced his career as an Assyriologist, and for a long time fought single-handed agst. heavy odds, the new study being not only ignored in Germy. but regarded by many eminent scholars as little better than charlatanism. His zeal was, however, in 1875, rewarded by the first chair in Assyriology.

To have simplified the study (as Mr. ELIOT has here done) of one of the most difficult languages of the world—not excl. Hungarian or even Turkish w. its initial impediment of the Arabic alphabet—is no mean feat of scholarship. The lang. possesses 15 distinct cases, 24 differentiated infinitive forms and a syntax at once elaborate and obscure. It is the first Finn. gram. in English, and conts. the only Syntax (exc. brief sketches) in any lang. more generally accessible than Swedish.

"Chinook Jargon."

HALE, Horatio Manual of the Oregon Trade Language [vocab., hist. sketch, specs.] 3/– c 8° Whittaker 90
The Chinook Jargon is of peculiar interest as affording the only known example of the evolution of a new lang. in quite recent times. Little more than 100 yrs. ago it was still unborn; at pres. moment many people speak it as their native tongue, and Mr. HALE (who in 1846 thought the jargon would disappear) is now of opin. that it will continue to be medium of intercourse (the lingua franca) betw. the differ. races of N.-W. The orig. nucleus of the vocab. was formed by English-speaking traders and Indians of Nootka Sound, who mutually learned a few words of each other's lang.: the Chinooks, taking it up, added over 100 words; and intercourse w. the Canad. voyageurs led to introd. of Fch. words. The vocab. was further augm. by onomatopoetic formatns. (e.g. lâpâ to boil; tumtum heart). The "root-stage" postulated for the prehist. periods of inflect. langs. is here an actual reality (tho' the "roots" are mostly polysyllabic); and, as in Chinese, almost any word may serve for noun, verb, adj. or adv. There are ab. 500 wds. in all, to wh. must be added compounds [e.g. ship-stick, a mast; stick-skin, bark of tree]. The orig. of many words is v. amusing, e.g. Kintshautsh=English [fr. "King George"]. At present there is no grammat. system. Will one be developed? [Author has resided since 1856 in Clinton, Ontario].

Conditional Sentences.

SMITH, Rich. Horton — The Theory of Conditional Sentences in Latin and Greek 21/– nt. ($) 8° Macmillan 94

A curious specimen of a philological treatise: the fruit of nearly 50 yrs'. study of the subject—and many other subjects to boot. Intended "for the use of students (who will find it full of instructn. and learning); but it conts. a multitude of obiter dicta on other matters of general literary interest and occas. of amusement. Like BERKELEY, who began to write on Tarwater and ended w. a disquisn. on the Trinity, Mr. Horton SMITH has not known where to stop.

A complete and luxurious catalogue of all the Gk. papyri acquired by Brit. Mus. up to end of 1890, with full texts of all those that are not of a literary character. The texts are revised by KENYON, who has added Intros. and notes, as well as a valuable introd. sketch of the hist. of Gk. cursive writing on papyrus and elaborate Indices. The texts range fr. 3rd cent. B.C. to 8th A.D., and are of value as evidences of private life and manners in Greek Egypt, illustrating the business habits, occupations, legal formulæ, handwriting, arithmetic, etc., of a very important Hellenistic society. The facss. are most excellently prepared by the Autotype Co., and form the finest series of palæograph. reprodns. wh. has yet appeared anywhere.

* „ „ [ed.] Classical Texts from the Papyri in Brit. Mus.; 9 autotype facss. 7/6 4° British Museum 91

Conts. 10 MSS. of class. authors, viz., portions of Iliad, of 3rd Ep. of DEMOSTHENES (prob. 2 cent. A.D.), and of ISOCRATES' On the Peace; and 3 "new" works, a fragmt. of a speech of (?) HYPERIDES against one PHILIPPIDES, a portn. of a grammat. treat. bearing name of TRYPHON, the great Alexandrian scholar, and the Mimiambοi of HERO(N)DAS, occupying nearly half the vol. [v. K § 190].

From the Cunningham Memrs. viii.–ix. A colln. of fragmts. of classical texts fr. the Petrie papyri, discov. by Prf. W. M. Flinders PETRIE in the cartonnages of the mummy-cases of Tell Gurob—the most important bg. fragmts. of the lost Antiope of EURIPIDES [ut K § 191], of PLATO [ut K § 194], and of HOMER [ut K § 192]. The whole is of very great palæogr., liter., and histor. value, the papyri forming the earliest known chap. in hist. of Gk. palæogr. Excellently ed., w. transcriptns., commentaries, index, and introd. contg. a sketch of Gk. life in Egypt. An Appendix is to appear, contg. facs. of the histor. narrative of the Syrian soldier, an interesting fragmt., and a discussn. of relns. of Monopoly Papyrus [ut sup.] to the docums. in pt. ii. of above.

By "south-Achæan" HOFFMANN denotes only Arcadian and Cyprian, identifying Æolic and Achæan, and thus altering the scheme of Gk. dialects somewhat. Ionic and Doric remaining as they did, but Æolic extending over pt. of Pelopon. and Cyprus. To avoid confus. w. Æolic of Asiatic coast, he calls this Achaean, and his Achaean falls into N. and S. divisions.

Byzantine.

*Krumbacher, Dr. K. Geschichte d. Byzantinischen Literatur [Müller's Hdb. Kl. Altert.] 8*m.*50 8° Beck, Nördlingen 91

An excellent and thorough piece of wk., descr. the differ. branches of liter. severally (hist., philos., rhetoric, philology in its widest sense, poetry sacred and profane, prose romances—to name only the chief heads), tracing them in their devel. or decline fr. earliest to latest stage. Commences w. 6th cent., instead of 7th or early 8th as Finlay and others have fixed on for the beginning of Byz. Emp., since Christ's Griech. Literaturgesch. [ut B.B. K § 187] in same series ends w. Justinian's time. Most valuable lists of authorities and sources are appended to each section, rendering it altogether a mine of inform. for the period.

Eight Lects. deliv. in 1892 in Johns Hopkins Univ., showing the chief characteristics of Gk. poets fr. the Homeric to the Alexandrian period (Menander dwelling fully on the 5 poets whom the author regards as the most typical of the true Hellenic age—Homer, Pindar and the 3 Attic tragedians—and less fully on post-Euripdean poetry; and luminously illustrating the place of anc. Greece in the general hist. of poetry.

*MACKAIL, J. W. [ed. and tr.] Select Epigrams from the Greek Anthology 16/- ($5.50) 8° Longman 90

A seln., in revised texts, w. elabor. and very valuable Introd. (88 pp.), prose trs. (at ft. of page) and some notes, of ab. 500 of the best pieces fr. the Greek Anthology, wh., as pub. in the monumental edn. of Friedr. JACOBS [13 vols. r 8° Dyk, Lpz. 1794–1813 (pb. 66*m.*50)] is a corpus deriv. fr. many collns. and selns. by var. compilers in differ. ages contg. over 4,000 epigrams or "occasional poems" of all dates fr. B.C. 700 to A.D. 1200. Most of JACOBS' text is founded on a single Palatine (Heidelb.) MS., wh. represents (tho' not completely) the anthol. of CONSTANTINUS CEPHALAS, a Byzant. grammarian of ? 10 cent. Much of the Palat. anthol. belongs also to the shorter compiln. of MAXIMUS PLANUDES, who was ambassr. fr. Gk. Emp. to Venice in 1327; but there are ab. 400 epigrs. in the Planudean collns. which are not in the Palat., and ab. as many more preserved only by ATHENÆUS, DIOG. LAERT. and other gossips or grammarians. The Gk. Anthol., owing to recent discovs., is of much wider scope to-day than in the days of JACOBS.

Standpoint strictly conservative: opposes KIRCHHOFF'S views reg. composn. of Odyss., and deals at length w. WOLF'S theory, concludg. w. a comparn. of other epical poems, such as Song of Roland, Kalevala. It is the most thorough and able defence of the literary unity of HOMER since MURE'S in his *Hist. of Gk. Odes : ed. w. English notes, Introds. and partial trs. J. B. Bury, 2 vols. [Classical Lib.] 22/6 ($5.25) 8° Macmillan 91 ; 92

Isthmian Odes, 10/6 ($2.25) '92 : Nemean Odes, 12/- ($3) '91. A very valuable edn. w. full and minute comm. and criticism, clear explans. of ea. Ode beneath the text, w. anal. of contents and particulars of the man and the occasion, as well as vigorous literal tr. of all difficult passages. A prominent feature of the book is the author's "theory of verbal responsions," very ingeniously if not very convincingly detected or unravelled. Several Appendices, e.g. (in Nemean Odes) on the orig. of the Gt. Games. Introd. to Isth, Odes, pp. xvi.–xxxiii. is an excell. sketch of Aegina in her histor., social and artistic aspects, a very useful piece of wk.

i. Amphyt., Asin., Aulul [w. Latin life of PLAUTUS] 1*m.*50 ; ii. Bacch., Capt., Casina, 1*m.*20.

An admirable small edn. The brief and excellent crit. appar. conts. only the essential variants : text represents the best scientific criticism (conservative) of pres. day, consid. improved on that of the large edn.

K § 215

Asinaria : w. English notes Rev. J. H. Gray [Pitt Press Series] ; fr. Goetz + Schoell's text f 8° 3/6 Camb. Press / 90c. nt. Macmillan, N.Y. 94

Captivi : w. English notes and Introd. J. H. Freese 1/6 f 8° Methuen 94

Intended for lower Forms, and omits about a third of the play—for no obvious reason, as the play is short and exceptionably unobjectionable.

*JESPERSEN, Prf. Otto — Progress in Language, w. spec. reference to English — 7/6 Sonnenschein / Macmillan, N. Y. — 94

A brilliant and original bk., expanded fr. author's Studier over Engelske Kasus [Klein, Copenh. '91], intended to establish that the change fr. the synthetic to the analytic type of lang. ought not to be regarded as "decay," but as progress—in Spencerian phrase as "evolution" not "dissolution." Full of acute reasoning and new observations: an important contribution to the history of the contemporary evolution of grammar.

GOW, Dr. Jas. Method of English for Secondary Schools, pt. i. Grammar 2/- (60*c.*) f 8° Macmillan 92

An excellent bk.; very suggestive and readable; but more suited for teachers' than pupils' use. Good in illns., e.g. as representing the differ. sounds of ough. "A rough-coated, dough-faced ploughman, strode, coughing and hiccoughing, thoughtfully through Scarborough."

*SWEET, Dr. Hy. A New English Grammar, pt. i. [Introd., Phonology, Accidence] c 8° 10/6 Clar. Press / $2.60 nt. Macmillan, N. Y. 92

An excellent scientific Engl. grammar, chfly. historical but at the same time logical, founded on an indepen. critical survey of the latest results of linguistic investign. of the subjects. Spec. attention paid to definitions of pts. of speech, to principles of linguistic developmt., to the chronol. and dialectology of English and to phonology. Psychology, however, rather amateurish.

Dictionary.

Stanford Dictionary of Anglicised Words and Phrases, ed. Dr. C. A. M. Fennell — 4° 31/6 Camb. Press / Macmillan, N.Y. 92

A useful and interesting contrib. to Engl. lexicography; but its scope is much too wide, and illns. w. dates and refs. are frequently wanting. "Anglicized" is taken to mean (a) borrowed and wholly or partly naturalized, (b) used in Engl. liter. without naturaliza., (c) familiarized by frequent quotn. The wk. thus incl. 12,798 articles (treating of 10,927 words, 1,813 phrases, and 278 quotns., w. 2,708 cross-refs.). Mr. J. F. STANFORD, who had himself coll. a good seln. of materl., in 1882 left £5,000 for its compiln. and pubn., and the scheme for its constructn. was drawn up by Prfs. MAYOR, SKEAT, BENSLY, Aldis WRIGHT and POSTGATE.

Fiction.

Salomon and Marcolphus, Dyalogus betwixt [c. 1492]: ed. E. Gordon Duff [350 prin.] 10/6 nt. s 4° Nutt 92
A neat facs. of the unique copy in Bodl. Lib. of edn. printed [Antwp., c. 1492] by Gerard LEEU, one of the most import. printers of the Low Cries., who exercised his craft at Gouda (1477-84) and later at Antwp. [1484–93], extending his operatns. to supplying bks. for the Engl. market dur. 1492–93, i.e. immed. after CAXTON'S death, when the Engl. press seems to have lost nearly all its vitality [e.g., Hist. of Jason, Hist. of Knight Paris and the Fair Vienne, Chronicles of Englde.]. The bk. itself in its Latin (prob. the original) versn. was one of the most popular stories of the Mid. Ages, and is the only one of wh. an Engl. tr. was made (or, at least, is extant). A second Engl. tr. (fr. French) was pub. by PYNSON 35 yrs. later, and DUFF mentions 4 vernac. German, as well as 23 Latin, editions.

Legends and Lives of the Saints.

The Great Collections.

(F) Legenda Aurea, tr. W. Caxton [prose; (1484) 1487], ed. Fred. S. Ellis + Wm. Morris, 3 v. 126/– [w. £10 10*s.*] 4° Kelmsc. Pr. (Qu'itch) 92
With glossary, bibliogr., memoranda and index. Only 500 printed, w. front by W. Burne JONES. Ed. fr. 1484 edn. (in Univ. Lib. Camb.). The Legenda Aurea was compiled in 13 cent. by JACOB de VORAGINE, Abp. of Genoa; early in 14 cent. it was tr. into Fch. by JEAN BELET, whose versn. was worked over again by JEAN DE VIGNAY, w. addn. of 44 legends: the latter versn. was used in making an English Lives of the Saints c. 1438, and out of these books CAXTON made his. Of the 1st. ed. only 30 copies are known to exist. This is a delightful repr. on handmade paper, w. beautiful capitals designed by Morris and engr. by H. H. Hooper, one of the choicest productions of the modern press which will hand down the name of Mr. Morris' Kelmscott Press to future generations.

A new tr. The 8 ill. are good reprods. fr. contemp. portraits mostly fr. the series executed by Thos. LE LEU. A handsome vol. Author was sister of HENRI iii. and the 1st wife of HENRI iv. (the "Reine Margot" of DUMAS), and must not be confused w. the compiler of the Heptameron [ut sup., s.v. Fiction], whose great-niece she was, nor w. MARGUERITE DE VALOIS who married the Dke. of SAVOY (all three bg. interesting 16-cent. princesses). These memoirs were 1st tr. into Engl. by Rob. CODRINGTON in 1641 [not 1648, as stated in Preface (he also tr. the Heptam. in 1654)] : the best Fch. edn. is that of GUESSARD (Soc. de l'Hist. de Frce.), a tr. of whose notes are incorpor. here. The Bibl. Elzévir. edn., w. notes by L. LALANNE [o.p. (pb. 5/fr.) 12° Daffis, Paris '58] is also a good one.
